| Výsledky vzdelávania:The course focuses on the most contemporary American literature and its major themes as reflections of various aspects of American society. The aim is to discuss the latest issues in America within literary postmodern discourse, its genres, major tropes and the interdisciplinary nature of contemporary American literature in respect to politics, cultural studies, sociology etc. Apart from discussing fiction, the course will also go through the cinematic representation of some of the literary works and discuss the possibilities and limitations of visual representation of a literary work.                                                                                                                  |                                                               |

| Výsledky vzdelávania:The course combines information on history and institutions to provide a complex insight into what constitutes American nation. From the historical perspective the course considers the economic, social and political history of the USA from the earliest period. It provides an explanation of what happened and why. It captures the events, personalities that shaped the nation. It examines how                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                          | historians have interpreted the past and provides a conceptual framework through which the past can be illuminated.

From the perspective of Institutions, the course introduces basic terminology and theory that helps to understand contemporary American society. The target theory is a theory of identity with reference to various aspects such as religion, family, race, and class. Via the interpretation of primary sources the main objective of this part is to develop and/or improve essential analytical skills in dealing with contemporary cultural problems with the focus on social institutions as the main agent of social changes.

Failing to do so will result in considering the student absent for the given seminar session.Each student is allowed two absences at most. Failing to attend the Week 1 introductory session is ALSO COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. More than two missed seminars will result in failing the course, without considering credit test/seminar paper results.After each topic, each student is required to submit a short paper of 500-750 words. Each student will hand in a total of four such papers. Paper topics and deadlines will be announced during the seminars. Papers must conform to the guidelines of academic writing and must NOT be plagiarised. Plagiarised papers will be marked FX/0, without the possibility of rewriting.The final result will be calculated as the sum of active class participation (having read the required texts each week and contributing to the discussion during the seminar), seminar papers and credit test, in the following ratio: 15% active participation, 50% seminar papers and 35% credit test.No retakes are available.Mark %A 93 – 100B 86 – 92C 78 – 85D 72 – 77E 65 – 71FX 64 - 0 |                                                              |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:This course is designed to help students explore British popular fiction, i.e. the texts that are not studied in traditional literature history classes, as they stand outside the canon. It is the aim of this course to teach students to critically examine and analyse the significance and cultural impact of texts they would normally consider leisure reading. Also, the course poses questions such as: What is the difference between high and low culture? What is the place of popular fiction within literature? Can popular fiction be analysed in the same manner as literature? What is genre and how is it significant for popular fiction?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                              |

| Stručná osnova predmetu:Cieľom štátnej skúšky je preukázať znalosti v odbore. Študent musí dokázať všeobecné znalosti z čiastkových oblastí odboru. Zároveň musí preukázať, že jeho vedomosti vo vybranej oblasti zodpovedajú hlbšiemu záujmu o vybranú problematiku a teda presahujú štandardný obsah a rozsah predmetov daného stupňa štúdia. Predseda štátnicovej komisie, garant študijného programu, resp. garant pre príslušnú oblasť stanovia študentovi literatúru, ktorú je nutné pre potreby štátnej skúšky naštudovať. |       |                                                  |       |     |      |

| Stručná osnova predmetu:Cieľom štátnej skúšky je preukázať znalosti v odbore. Študent musí dokázať všeobecné znalosti z čiastkových oblastí odboru. Zároveň musí preukázať, že jeho vedomosti vo vybranej oblasti zodpovedajú hlbšiemu záujmu o vybranú problematiku a teda presahujú štandardný obsah a rozsah predmetov daného stupňa štúdia. Predseda štátnicovej komisie, garant študijného programu, resp. garant pre príslušnú oblasť stanoví študentovi literatúru, ktorú je nutné pre potreby štátnej skúšky naštudovať. |     |                                                  |     |     |     |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:U.S. ARTS AND CULTURE (100% is 50% of the grade)Continuous Assessment:Attendance and Active Participation - 5 %Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Students are only allowed excused absences. It is a basic courtesy in any human interaction that one notifies another human being when circumstances emerge that preclude them from being present where their presence is expected. You are expected to notify the instructor of any forthcoming absence. Only absences for grave reasons, accompanied by proper documentation, will be excused. If you miss more than two classes, you effectively disqualify yourself from the chance of being graded for this course. You are expected to come to class on time. Students who are late will be marked as absent. Students will be called at random to answer questions and contribute to the discussion. Voluntary discussion contributions will be highly appreciated. Unannounced quizzes may occasionally be given to check your class prep. Any student deemed unprepared will be asked to leave the class and will be marked as absent. Please bear in mind that the classes will be enhanced by intelligent participation in class discussions and hurt by visible lack of preparation for the class. No retakes are possible.Readings for each class are posted on the ffweb under the instructor's name (Takacova).Presentation followed by a short essay – 10%You will be asked to give a 12-15-minute presentation on a work of art. You will write an essay based on the presentation and the ensuing discussion. Your essay is to be 4-5 pages in length (Times New Roman, font 12, double-spaced). The essay will be due one week after your class presentation. More details forthcoming.Written Test – 85%The test will consist of several parts. You will be given ID questions (identifying the artist, the title, period, and significance of the major U.S. artworks covered in the course of the semester). You will also be given a number of short answer questions, and - at the end of the semester - one essay question on a general theme. Questions will be based on the readings, lectures, and class discussions.Final Assessment:You have to earn a combined 65% minimum in the course of the semester to be allowed to take the final exam, which will be oral. |                                                                                                           |

Continuous Assessment:

- Regular Class Attendance

Students are allowed to miss no more than 2 seminars for whatever reason, in order to be able to complete the course. Should anyone come unprepared, he or she will be asked to leave and considered absent from the seminar. There are no re-takes for presentations. Please keep this in mind and make sure you are always present in class when your presentation is due.

- Active Participation in Class - 10+ points (1 for each class = a chance to earn some additional points) = 10%

At the beginning of each seminar, students will be asked to provide a brief revision of the given historical period and of the English/British literature of the time. All you have to do is go through your notes from British History 1 and British Literature 1 and 2 and provide a concise overview, focusing on what you consider important.

Another way of earning points for active participation is by contributing your knowledge and opinions to the discussion and interacting with your colleagues. These opinions should be based on your home preparation and reading.

Do not expect to earn points for active presentation if all you do is say a word or two occasionally or when asked. You are expected to interact with your colleagues, answer their questions as well as those asked by the teacher and ask relevant questions yourself.

- Reading presentation and leading discussion - 10 points = 10%(reading comprehension, summarizing and paraphrasing, manner of delivery, language, questions and discussion - each worth 2 points)

This presentation will focus on the reading assigned for home preparation to all the students. One person will, however, summarise the arguments of the article, chapter etc., present the main points, terminology, compare if there is anything to compare. Another part of this presentation will be leading the class debate, which means preparing some questions for your colleagues to discuss. This means avoiding simple yes/no questions or asking about trivia. Please remember that this is not a 'presentation' that requires you to stand in front of the classroom and run a power point presentation. You are expected to explain the text, to check your colleagues' understanding by asking them relevant questions and to engage them in a discussion.

All the reading materials will be available online at http://ffweb.ff.upjs.sk/vyuka/Katedra Anglistiky a Amerikanistiky/Sabovikova/ UK Art and Culture\_Double majors/ or, in case of online sources, links are provided directly in the syllabus.

- Final Presentation - 30 points (see the document entitled "Final presentation and evaluation" for detailed instructions) = 30%

Each student will choose their own topic from the very broad area of British art and culture – a painting, statue, installation, building, monument, street art, photography etc. Please, make sure you choose something you like, find interesting and would like your colleagues to know about. Do not choose the works discussed in our seminars! You will be asked to apply the historical background and the theoretical information you have studied during the semester to the analysis of your chosen work of art and present it to your colleagues in a 10-15 minute presentation. All the topics must be approved by the teacher and submitted no later than during our seminar in week 7.

A specific set of rules to follow and a list of criteria for presentation evaluation is available on ffweb for you to be able to prepare a successful presentation and to evaluate your colleagues. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask them in class or during my office hours.

FINAL ASSESSMENT:

To qualify for the final exam all students must receive minimum 65% of continuous assessment from each of the two parts separately.

There will be a final exam taken during the examination period consisting of two separate parts, one written exam covering UK Art and Culture part ( 50 % of the final grade) and the other one (oral) covering American studies part ( 50 % of the final grade). In order to be awarded final credits, each student must receive 65% minimum from each of the two exams.

Every student is entitled to 2 retakes if necessary, which means 3 chances for passing the exam.

The final grade for the course will be based on the following grading scale.

A 93-100%

B 86-92%

C 78-85%

D 72-77%

E 65-71%

FX 64 and less.

Should you have any questions on the above explained forms of assessment, address them to your individual lecturer at the beginning of the semester.

U.S. ARTS AND CULTURE :

Course Description and Learning Outcomes

This part of the course will concentrate on the visual arts of painting, photography, sculpture, architecture and related forms as a means of U.S.-American self-expression and self-identification. Our approach will be historical, our intent to appreciate and enjoy reproductions of fine works of art and to discuss and learn what these works reveal about U.S.-American culture. Our primary means of learning about U.S.-American art will be in-class viewing and discussions of the reproductions of the works of U.S. artists. We will also consult the words of the artists themselves and of their most sensitive critics who best represent the particular period. By the end of the course, you will be expected to identify the title, artist, period, and chief significance of major works of U.S. art.

The course is designed to be collaborative, a combination of lecture and discussion. I ask that you come to the class not only with your readings completed but also with your mouth, ears, heart and mind open; and that you challenge yourself, your classmates, and me to do our very best. Thank you in advance for your cooperation. I look forward to working with you.

UK ART AND CULTURE

Course Description:

The course builds upon the students' prior knowledge of British history and literature and tries not only to revise this knowledge but also to put it into a broader cultural context. Proceeding chronologically from the period of English Renaissance, we shall focus on how the political and social situation of the time has been reflected in (not only) visual art and in cultural production of the time, taking British literature as a starting point. The students shall therefore be asked to revise selected chapters of British history and literature for each seminar. This revision will be followed by reading materials that deal specifically with mostly visual art and culture of the time. This theoretical knowledge will then be applied to specific examples art and culture that may serve as a source of information not only about the artistic values of the society of the time but also about its norms, values and institutions.

Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, student will be able to:

- Identify some of the most significant works of British art
- Understand the connections between historical background and cultural development of the respective periods
- Identify main ideas and arguments in the texts assigned for home preparation
- Apply this theoretical knowledge to the analysis of works of art and culture and make their own analysis of a selected work of art based on the theories studied throughout the semester

- Students would also improve the transferable skills of summarising texts they have read, understanding knowledge gained in the classroom, understanding and applying it in the form of a presentation

UK ART AND CULTURE

WEEK 1: Course Introduction

Content: defining culture and art, the concept of national culture, British culture and stereotypes, cultural literacy

We will discuss our understanding of the terms 'art' and 'culture' and try to come up with our own definitions. Then we will think about the term 'national' culture and British culture in particular and see how we each understand these notions and what concepts and stereotypes we associate with being British. Our next task will be to try to clarify the term 'art' and how we understand it in relation to culture. Throughout this course, we will also be working on improving certain skills that may be useful in broader context. This lesson will focus on summarising texts and presenting these summaries to others, which will later be applied in individual presentations.

Reading (in class):

- Arnold, D.: Art History. A Very Short Introduction. Oxford: OUP, 2004. Chapter 1

WEEK 2: English Renaissance

Content: Renaissance, Reformation, portrait painting, Tudors and the Golden Age

In this class, we will compare the understanding of arts and the role of artists in ancient, medieval and Renaissance society and discuss how and why Renaissance came to be a defining turning point for European culture and how our awareness of this period has been shaped by its presentation in the media.

Revision: Tudor England (history), Elizabethan and Tudor Literature (literature)

Reading:

- <http://www.arthistory.sbc.edu/artartists/ancmed.html>

<http://www.arthistory.sbc.edu/artartists/renaissance.html>

Presentation(s): compare the position of art and artist in ancient, medieval and Renaissance society.

WEEK 3: Commonwealth and Restoration

Content: Charles I and Baroque portrait, art and culture of the Commonwealth, Restoration

This class will focus on the reflection of the changing social and political situation in the period art, particularly the portrait painting. We will discuss how portraits of monarchs and other influential figures reflected their ambitions and served as a message for the others. Applying our theoretical knowledge to analysing specific works of art, we will move on to discuss the form of the final presentation and its evaluation criteria.

Revision: Stuarts (history), 17th century and Restoration literature (literature)

Reading:

- Sharpe, K. 'Portrait of an Age'. In History Today, March 2009, pp. 6-7.
- Skeaping, L. 'All singing, all dancing'. In History Today, February 2010, pp. 18-24.

WEEK 4: Neo-Classicism, English School of Art

Content: The Age of Reason, Enlightenment, the rise of middle classes, satire, journalism

Neo-Classical art and culture in general marked a shift in topics, styles and target audience for writers and visual artists alike. Using our knowledge of neo-classical literature as a starting point, we will analyse several paintings of the so called English School to see how similar principles were applied in visual arts. Since this period also marked the birth of journalism and regular newspapers, we will compare some of those with our current notions of what a newspaper is.

Revision: Neoclassical prose and poetry (literature)

Reading:

- <http://www.gutenberg.org/files/2176/2176-h/2176-h.htm> - (Introduction and the first of the discourses)
- http://www.gutenberg.org/files/22500/22500-h/22500-h.htm#Page\_113

Presentation(s): compare Hogarth's and Reynolds' attitudes to art (themes and genres they preferred) and the education and training of young artists

WEEK 5: Georgian Era

Content: architecture, domestic life, Regency

This period in British art history will give us an opportunity to pay more attention to architecture. We will look back on how architectural styles evolved but will also discuss the less visible aspects of this topic, including the notion of domesticity and the organisation of domestic life.

Revision: Jane Austen (literature), Hanoverians (history)

Reading:

- Vickery, A. 'Open House Georgian Style'. In History Today, November 2009, pp. 42-44.
- Bryson, B. At Home. A Short History of Private Life. London: Transworld Publishers, 2010.

Chapter 5

WEEK 6: TUTORIALS - no class

WEEK 7: Romanticism, Landscape

Content: changing perception of nature, topography, history painting

Our discussion of Romantic painting will focus on the development of this genre and primarily on comparing 2 most significant English landscape painters, trying to identify their different aims and understanding of their work. We will also cover the genre of history painting, its connection to landscape in the works of Turner and discuss the reasons for its prominent status in this particular period in history.

Revision: the Age of Romanticism (literature)

Reading:

- Wilton, A.: Five Centuries of British Painting. From Holbein to Hodgkin. London: Thames and Hudson, 2002. Chapter 5

Constable: <http://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/paintings/john-constable-the-hay-wain>
<http://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/paintings/john-constable-salisbury-cathedral-from-the-meadows>

Turner: http://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/paintings/learn-about-art/paintings-in-depth/heroine-of-traffic-the-fighting-temeraire/\*/viewPage/1

<http://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/paintings/joseph-mallord-william-turner-rain-steam-and-speed-the-great-western-railway>

Presentation(s): compare Constable and Turner's different approaches to the genre of landscape painting

WEEK 8: Victorian Britain

Content: Empire, industrialisation, old vs. new, Arts and Crafts movement

We will start this lesson by discussing last week's reading and then move on to other aspects of Victorian Britain. We will discuss its conservatism as opposed to major innovations in technology, science and thinking, major advances and modernisation as opposed to pseudo-styles and attempts at reviving ancient arts and crafts.

Revision: Industrial Revolution, Victorian Britain (history),

Reading:

- Wilton, A.: Five Centuries of British Painting. From Holbein to Hodgkin. London: Thames and Hudson, 2002. Chapter 6 – Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood
- Bryson, B. At Home. A Short History of Private Life. London: Transworld Publishers, 2010. Chapter 1

Presentation(s): old vs. new in Victorian Britain in terms of visual art, architecture and way of thinking

WEEK 9: Contemporary Art and Culture

Content: Young British Artists, conceptual art, new media

During this class, we will return to our initial definitions of what art means and will compare these with the theories discussed in the reading that try to respond to current styles and trends. Specific examples will include paintings, installations and other forms of art by contemporary British artists. Again, we will see how the understanding of art, artist and their role has been evolving.

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Continuous assessment:Students will be asked to sit two credit tests (week 8 and 12). The sum of the scores from these two tests must be at least 65% in order for a student to be allowed to take the final exam. Since there are no retakes, the students must be present at both credit tests.Each student is required to have their own copies of the seminar materials. Failing to do so will result in considering the student absent for the given seminar session. In addition, each student is required to prepare written notes/fill in the seminar handouts (available on ff web) BEFORE each seminar and bring them to class. If a student is unable to present their written notes, they will be considered absent for the given seminar session.Each student is allowed two absences at most. Failing to attend the Week 1 introductory session is ALSO COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. More than two missed seminars will result in failing the course, irrespective of exam results.Final assessment:Written examination: Test based on the lecture content and compulsory reading.Mark %A 93 – 100B 86 – 92C 78 – 85D 72 – 77E 65 – 71FX 64 - 0NOTICE that LECTURE OUTLINES will be provided on the internet site ffweb.ff.upjs.sk/vyuka. The outlines present some basic facts and extracts from the literary works discussed during lectures. The outlines, however, should not be perceived as a sole study source. Performing well on the final exam requires taking careful lecture notes and studying of the recommended literature. |                                                                                           |

Students will be asked to sit two credit tests, in weeks 6 and 12. Students must score a minimum of 65% at each of the tests in order to be allowed to take the final exam. There are no retakes for these two tests. Each student is required to bring a copy of the seminar readings to each seminar session. Students are required to read the respective texts and prepare their seminar assignments ahead of each seminar. If the student is unable to participate in the class discussion, they will be considered absent for the given seminar session. The students are allowed to miss a maximum of 2 sessions. In case that a student misses more than 2 sessions (or of they come to the sessions unprepared), they will be awarded an FX for the course, irrespective of the test results. | Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Class attendanceStudents are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Transfers among groups are possible. In case you miss one class you are required to attend the class with a different group or excuse your absence with a valid doctor's certificate. In case you miss more than two classes, you will not receive credits for the course. You must be on time for class. Should you miss the first ten minutes of a particular seminar session your presence in the class will not count.PreparationStudents are expected to make their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to bring your own copy of the required study materials or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, your presence in class will not count. If you arrange with the tutor in advance not to attend a class session, you will be expected to submit any assignment on the subsequent session.The final assessment is based on the results of the two credit tests:A=100 - 94;B=93 - 87;C=86 - 80;D=79 - 73;E=72 - 66;FX=65 - 0. |                                             |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:The primary objective of the course is to introduce students into basics of communication and business correspondence. The course is designed to help students develop writing skills needed for creating lucid messages. A special emphasis is put on spelling, text design, style and register.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                             |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Testy v 7. a 14. týždni preveria vedomosti študentov z materiálov preberaných počas hodín a určených na domácu prípravu. Aby študent získal hodnotenie, musí konečný výsledok z oboch testov predstavovať spolu minimálne 65%. Náhradné ani opravné termíny sa konať nebudú. V prípade potreby presunúť termín testu z dôvodu prázdnin či neprítomnosti vyučujúceho sa o tejto zmene dozvedia študenti v dostatočnom predstihu prostredníctvom oficiálnej stránky katedry/mailom. Od študentov sa očakáva pravidelná a aktívna účasť na hodinách: viac než dve absencie znemožnia vyučujúcemu udeliť konečné hodnotenie. Nepripravenosť sa rovnako považuje za absenciu. Ak študent nemá vlastné kópie potrebných materiálov či písomnú prípravu, vyučujúci je oprávnený požiadať dotyčného študenta, aby opustil učebňu. Študenti sú povinní rešpektovať pridelenie do jednotlivých seminárnych skupín. V prípade akýchkoľvek otázok kontaktujte vyučujúceho na týchto e-mailových adresách: mariana.zelenakova@upjs.sk alebo mariana.zelenakova@gmail.com.Hodnotenie:Test č. 1. - 50%Test č. 2. - 50%Spolu: 100%Percentuálny počet potrebný na udelenie hodnotenia: 65%Stupnica stanovená oficiálnymi hodnotiacimi kritériami:100%-92% A91%-87% B86%-82% C81%-77% D76%-65% E64% a menej Fx |                                                         |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Testy v 7. a 14. týždni preveria vedomosti študentov z materiálov preberaných počas hodín a určených na domácu prípravu. Aby študent získal hodnotenie, musí konečný výsledok z oboch testov predstavovať spolu minimálne 65%. Náhradné ani opravné termíny sa konať nebudú. V prípade potreby presunúť termín testu z dôvodu prázdnin či neprítomnosti vyučujúceho sa o tejto zmene dozvedia študenti v dostatočnom predstihu prostredníctvom oficiálnej stránky katedry/mailom. Od študentov sa očakáva pravidelná a aktívna účasť na hodinách: viac než dve absencie znemožnia vyučujúcemu udeliť konečné hodnotenie. Nepripravenosť sa rovnako považuje za absenciu. Ak študent nemá vlastné kópie potrebných materiálov či písomnú prípravu, vyučujúci je oprávnený požiadať dotyčného študenta, aby opustil učebňu. Študenti sú povinní rešpektovať pridelenie do jednotlivých seminárnych skupín. V prípade akýchkoľvek otázok kontaktujte vyučujúceho na týchto e-mailových adresách: mariana.zelenakova@upjs.sk alebo mariana.zelenakova@gmail.com. | Výsledky vzdelávania:Predmet je zameraný na rozvoj základných jazykových kompetencií študentov, na upevňovanie a rozvíjanie všetkých jazykových zručností, predovšetkým vo francúzštine potrebnej na každodennú komunikáciu potrebnú na úspešné zvládanie pobytov študentov v rámci medzinárodných projektov (napr. Erasmus), v akademickej a odbornej francúzštine, ako i s ohľadom na budúce možnosti uplatnenia sa študentov na trhu práce, na začiatocníckej až stredne pokročilej úrovni ovládania jazyka (A1 až B2) podľa Spoločného európskeho referenčného rámca pre jazyky. Dôraz sa kladie na aktívne používanie cudzieho jazyka v bežnom živote, v akademickom a vedecko-výskumnom prostredí i v eventúálnom budúcom profesionálnom pôsobení.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                         |

| Výsledky vzdelávania:This course aims at presenting the students with a new point of view on a topic as familiar as children's literature, and consequently attempts to encourage them to adopt a critical attitude towards all, even well-known and seemingly straightforward, areas of life. The course consists in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                              | analysing specific fairy tales and other texts falling under the category of “children’s literature” in order to uncover the mechanisms which these texts employ to socialise children, reflect and/or influence family dynamics, construct identities, sustain traditional gender roles, or, on the contrary, deconstruct them.

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:1. Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Students are allowed to miss two classes at the most. Should they miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are on tests. Students must be on time for class or they will be marked as absent.2. Active participation, completed homework assignments - students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. They are expected to bring their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should they fail to bring their own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, they will be marked as absent.3. CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT – Language skills ( LS ) as a subject comprises 3 parts (1- reading and speaking, 2- listening and vocabulary, 3- grammar) . Students will take 2 credit tests, presumably during tutorial weeks. The date of the test may change. All three parts of the subject will be included in the tests and they will be tested on the same day; however, each part will be considered separately. At the end of the semester , within each part of LS separately, your partial scores will be calculated based on the results of partial credit tests.Final assessment and evaluation:The student will receive final credits when getting minimum mark set for their study group for each of the three parts of Language skills (LS). In such case the final credits will be calculated as an average of all percentage results from all LS parts. If students fail one part of LS, they fail the whole subject and cannot receive any credits. There will not be any re-take tests for those who failed to achieve the pass level.FINAL EVALUATION :Scale for BASb and BASb (komb) double majors:A 93-100%B 86-92%C 78-85%D 72-77%E 65-71%FX 64 and lessScale for RSb: |                                                              |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:1. Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Students are allowed to miss two classes at the most. Should they miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are on tests. Students must be on time for class or they will be marked as absent.2. Active participation, completed homework assignments - students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. They are expected to bring their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should they fail to bring their own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, they will be marked as absent.3. CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT – Language skills 2 ( LS2 ) as a subject comprises 4 parts (1& 2 - reading & speaking, 3- listening , 4- grammar) . Students will take 2 credit tests, presumably during tutorial weeks. The date of the test may change. The three parts ( reading, listening and grammar) of the subject will be included in the tests and speaking will be tested orally, and they will be tested on the same day; however, each part will be considered separately. At the end of the semester, within each part of LS2 separately, your partial scores will be calculated based on the results of partial credit tests and speaking part. In order to pass one part of LS2, students need to score minimum pass mark as set for their study group.Final assessment and evaluation:The student will receive final credits when getting minimum pass mark as set for respective study groups for each of the four parts of LS2. In such case the final credits will be calculated as an average of all percentage results from all LS2 parts. If students fail one part of LS2, they fail the whole subject and cannot receive any credits. There will not be any re-take tests for those who failed to achieve the pass level.FINAL EVALUATION :Scale for BASb and BASb (komb) double majors:A 93-100%B 86-92%C 78-85%D 72-77% |                                                              |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Attendance and Participation: You may miss two classes without penalty. You will fail the course if you miss more than two classes or are late more than three times. Hopefully, you'll be eager to come and eager to speak up in class. If, however, you attend but are consistently mute and mysterious, I will lower your grade by one letter. Drafts, Deadlines, and Late Work: Throughout the course, I will encourage you to write multiple drafts of each paper. Writing multiple drafts will improve your writing and take some of the stress out of the final deadline. Ideally, you will have a first draft well before the deadline, so you should always be able to get something in on time. If a paper or draft is late, you may email it to me anytime, but I will reduce the grade by one letter per day. You must complete all of the assignments in order to pass. Continuous Assessment: You will write two, one page papers, a three page paper, and a six page final paper. There will also be occasional quizzes which will be worth ten percent of your grade. Assignment descriptions are posted on ffweb. For each paper, I will break down your overall grade into four categories: Concept, Structure, Language, and Documentation. On your final paper, if you receive an FX in any one of these four categories, you will fail the course. There is no final exam. focus on some aspects of vocabulary learning. The course aims to help to learn new words and word combinations, functioning as meaningful units with a fixed or semi-fixed form (collocations, phrasal verbs, idioms), and to show that the words can play different roles in a text, and can express a variety of meanings. Contextually based learning is of great importance, and various sources are suggested.

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Continuous assessment will be based on two credit tests (credit test 1 = 50%, credit test 2 = 50%); pass level from both tests together is 65%. There will be no retake. Pass level 65% from both tests together is a precondition for being admitted to final exam test. Students are expected to attend each seminar according to the schedule. More than two unexcused absences are not acceptable (extreme situations aside), making the third unexcused absence an automatic failure for the course.Oral exam = 100%                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                 |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:To introduce fundamental concepts of linguistic morphology. The course concentrates on the study of the internal structure of words and their relationship to one another. It also examines the interface between morphology and other linguistic disciplines.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                 |

Morphology/phonology interfaceAllomorphy, assimilation and types of assimilation (labial assimilation, voicing assimilation, total assimilation), replacement by weakening or strengthening (T-lenition, palatalization and affrication, D-lenition; vocalization); vowel replacement; Deletion rules (consonant deletion – Sdrop, X-drop, N-drop, Vowel deletion (V-drop in hiatus, syllable syncope); expansion rules (Uepenthesis and P-epenthesis). |                                                 |

Fossilized allomorphy, rhotacism in Latin and Germanic, Metathesis, False cognates (boundary misplacement, pseudosuffixes).

5. Level-ordering morphology
6. Natural Morphology
7. Bybee's theory of morphology
8. Beard's Lexeme-Morpheme-Base Morphology
9. Morphological Typology and language universals
10. The notion of category, primary, secondary, and functional categories, classification of wordclasses
- Plato, Aristotle, the Alexandrians, Jespersen, Lyons, categorial transition – prototype theory – cline – fuzzy edge.
11. Noun and its categories: case - Possessive Form; gender – natural vs. formal gender, number - pluralia and singularia tantum
12. Verb and its categories: tense Jespersen's conception of time and tense, Lyons and Spencer; tense and aspect, perfective and progressive aspect, the notion of finitude – finite and non-finite; mood – indicative, imperative, conditional, subjunctive, the relation between mood and sentence type, inductive (general truths), promissive.
13. Morphological models: Item-and-Arrangement, Item-and-Process, Word-and-Paradigm.

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. More than one unexcused absence is not acceptable (extreme situations aside), making the second unexcused absence an automatic failure for the course. There will be 1 written test (week 7). Each student will be required to give a presentation based on the course study material provided in advance. There will be no retake for any part of the continuous assessment (1 written test, 1 oral presentation).written test = 80% + oral presentation = 20%Final evaluation:A - 93-100%B - 86-92%C - 78-85%D - 72-77%E - 65-71%FX - 64% and less |                                           |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:The course aims to familiarise students with the principles, central ideas and the practical application of the communication theories they are likely to encounter not only in the communication discipline but also in everyday life.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                           |

| Výsledky vzdelávania:Considering the fact that most of the courses take a rather anglocentric point of view, it is necessary to introduce other issues and make the students aware of regional diversity of Britain. A single course is not sufficient to cover such a broad topic, therefore, Regions of the UK focus on Scotland as one of the regions. By covering a variety of topics similar to those already known to students primarily from the Introduction to British Studies, this course shall try to elicit a discussion about similarities and differences, encouraging students to contribute their own findings and areas of interest.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                          |

| Výsledky vzdelávania:Cieľom kurzu je oboznámiť študentov z vybranými textami modernej a súčasnej slovenskej literatúry, pričom predmetom záujmu je primárne reflexia rodovej problematiky, rozdelenia úloh v spoločnosti, a spoločenského zriadenia, ktoré toto rozdelenie ovplyvňuje. Kurz tematicky aj chronologicky nadväzuje na poznatky zo slovenskej literatúry získané počas stredoškolského štúdia, pričom sa snaží byť akýmsi prirodzeným pokračovaním stredoškolského kurikula - dôraz je kladený najmä na texty napísané v 20. a 21. storočí, a to konkrétne na texty menej známych autorov                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                               | a — hlavne — autoriek. Počas kurzu si študenti budú mať možnosť doplniť teoretické poznatky z oblasti slovenskej literatúry, ako aj rozvíjať praktické zručnosti: čítanie s porozumením, analýzu textu a kritické myslenie.

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Class attendanceStudents are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Transfers among the groups are possible. In case you miss one class you are required to attend the class with a different group or excuse your absence with a valid doctor's certificate. In case you miss more than two classes, you will not receive credits for the course. You must be on time for class. Should you miss the first ten minutes of a particular seminar session your presence in the class will not count.PreparationStudents are expected to make their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to bring your own copy of the required study materials or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, your presence in class will not count. If you arrange with the tutor in advance not to attend a class session, you will be expected to submit any assignment on the subsequent session.The final result is calculated according to the following formula:(1st CREDIT TEST) + (2nd CREDIT TEST) = FINAL MARKA 93 – 100B 86 – 92C 78 – 85D 72 – 77E 65 – 71FX 64 - 0 |                                                                                             |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:This is an upper-intermediate practicum for obtaining and developing necessary skills for international language certificates of TOEFL and TOEIC. Learners develop listening, speaking, reading and writing skills through practice and understand grammar through a wide variety of topics related to language testing.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                             |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Class attendanceStudents are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Transfers among the groups are possible. In case you miss one class you are required to attend the class with a different group or excuse your absence with a valid doctor's certificate. In case you miss more than two classes, you will not receive credits for the course. You must be on time for class. Should you miss the first ten minutes of a particular seminar session your presence in the class will not count.PreparationStudents are expected to make their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to bring your own copy of the required study materials or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, your presence in class will not count. If you arrange with the tutor in advance not to attend a class session, you will be expected to submit any assignment on the subsequent session.The final result is calculated according to the following formula:(1st CREDIT TEST) + (2nd CREDIT TEST) = FINAL MARKA 93 – 100B 86 – 92C 78 – 85D 72 – 77E 65 – 71FX 64 - 0 |                                                                                             |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:This is an upper-intermediate practicum for obtaining and developing necessary skills for international language certificates of TOEFL and TOEIC. Learners develop listening, speaking, reading and writing skills through practice and understand grammar through a wide variety of topics related to language testing.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                             |

| Výsledky vzdelávania:Cieľom predmetu je zvýšiť praktické spôsobilosti študentov pri spracovávaní štatistických dát s použitím softvérového balíka SPSS. Absolvovaním predmetu si študenti osvoja a precvičia základné spôsobilosti pre prácu s databázami. Študenti si osvoja využívanie funkcií aplikácie SPSS v kontexte popisnej a rozdielovej štatistiky v rozsahu preberanom na predmete Štatistika I.                                                    |     |                                              |     |     |     |

| Poznámky:Pre semináre s Mgr. Demjanovou:Hodiny budú prebiehať v slovenskom jazyku. Od študentov sa očakáva ovládanie anglického jazyka na vysokej úrovni – nízka úroveň anglického jazyka neospravedlňuje výkon študenta pri tlmočení a odzrkadlí sa v záverečnom hodnotení. Predmet nie je odporúčané navštevovať v prvom ročníku štúdia, keďže si vyžaduje pohotovosť používania jazyka na úrovni C1+.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |      |     |     |     |     |

| Poznámky:Predmet je vyučovaný dvomi vyučujúcimi. PhDr. Štefan Franko, PhD. vyučuje semináre pre študentov tlmočníctva a prekladateľstva, ktorí majú predmet ako povinný. Mgr. Ester Demjanová vyučuje predmet ostatných študentov (BAS a BAS v kombinácii), ktorí majú predmet ako povinne voliteľný. Presuny medzi skupinami nie sú možné. Všetci študenti musia byť nahlásení na rozvrh k správne vyučujúcemu. Pre jednotlivé skupiny platia rôzne podmienky hodnotenia a rôzna obsahová náplň predmetu.                                                                                                                                                                        |      |      |     |     |     |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Active and continuous participation is required. Students should read the assigned readings and come to classes prepared. Students are allowed to miss no more than two sessions. If you have missed more than two classes, you will not be allowed to continue the course and take the exam. This course employs continuous assessment. Your final grade will be determined based on your attendance and participation (20%), Presentation (15%), and the Final Test (65%). Any student who fails to get the required minimum on the test has failed the class.The instructor will also be taking attendance every week. Any students deemed unprepared will be marked as absent. The maximum number of absences allowed is 2 per semester.The grading scale isBASb komb A [100-93], B [92-86], C [85-78], D [77-72], E [71-65], FX [64-0];AJEIEb AJEIEb komb A [100-94], B [93-89], C [88-83], D [82-77], E [76-70], FX [69-0];RSb A [100-90], B [89-80], C [79-70], D [69-60], E [59-50], FX [49-0]                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                    |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:The course will provide an undergraduate-level introduction to the issues studied in the field of American Studies. After a brief introduction to this academic discipline, we will focus on race and ethnicity in U.S. history and culture as one of the key aspects analyzed within American Studies. Our approach will be historical. We will explore the gradual historical process of the U.S. self-defining as a nation from initially hailing monoculturalism to embracing multiculturalism in the second half of the twentieth century. The focus will be on reading a larger number of short pieces and selections rather than complete books in order to generate a wide-ranging knowledge or essential concepts. We will meet some of the key figures in American history, and look at how they think about their nation. We will look at how the people themselves have worked historically to reshape and redefine the concept of a "nation" and "participatory democracy" to bring about the inclusion of previously excluded groups into the larger body politic. We will study and discuss how these groups and individuals have employed their agency to contest and reshape the meaning of "America."The main objective of this course is to gain familiarity with some of the recurrent aspects and terms in American culture and how they change over time, and possess an introductory sense of some of the vital critical works of American studies and how they relate to their own historical contexts. |                                                                                    |

| Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:Continuous Assessment:• Regular Class AttendanceStudents are allowed to miss no more than 2 seminars for whatever reason. Please reserve these for when you are sick or have other serious reasons to be absent since you only have these 2 options and no more! Once you have missed more than 2 seminars, you will not be allowed to continue the course and obtain the credits. Should anyone come unprepared, he or she will be asked to leave and considered absent from the seminar. The same applies to failure to participate in class activities and discussion.• TestsStudents are expected to complete their readings prior to each class and bring a copy of readings with them to class.Students will write two tests (during tutorials) which will cover materials assigned for home preparation, discussed in seminars and lectures. The SUM of the scores from these two tests must be AT LEAST set minimum for their study group (50% RSb; 65% BASb komb; 70% AJEIEb) in order for a student to be awarded the final mark.Final AssessmentFinal assesment 100% = test 1 (50%) + test 2 (50%)Two written tests taken during weeks 7 and 13, covering materials assigned for home reading, discussed in seminars and lectures. There are no retakes so please keep this in mind and do not ask for any, official or unofficial.Grading policy:Scale for BASB komb (double majors):A 100-93%B 92-86%C 85-78%D 77-72%E 71-65%FX 64 and lessScale for RSb:A 90-100% |                                                                                           |

You should also read the rest of the chapters from your coursebook to be prepared for the final exam.

Should you come across anything you wish to discuss, 3 weeks of tutorials during the semester are reserved for this very purpose.

Every student MUST have their own copy of O'Driscoll's book. All the other materials and assignments for home study will be available online at:

<http://ffweb.ff.upjs.sk/vyuka//Katedra%20Anglistiky%20a%20Amerikanistiky/Sabovikova/Introduction%20to%20BS/>

Lecture handouts are available online at:

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to talk to your instructors before or after classes or, preferably, during office hours. Do not send email unless absolutely necessary and remember that in addition to teaching and preparing for classes, we have many other duties which make it impossible for us to check our emails constantly and to reply within 24 hours. Before asking a question related to the organization of the course, assessment etc., make sure it has not already been answered on the department website, in the course syllabus or in class.

SEMINARS

The main aim of the seminars is to develop students' knowledge of the linguistic terms and concepts introduced on lectures. The great emphasis will be placed on the ability to understand and to use the key terminology, since this course prepares students for future advanced courses in linguistics. Class time will be spent working through students' responses to various questions related to lectures as well as to the texts students will be asked to read before attending class. Topics of the seminars will follow the content of the Introduction to Linguistics. A Practical Coursebook.

Week 1: Introduction. Aim of the course. Assessment and evaluation.

Week 2: business trip – no seminar

Week 3: Section I

LINGUISTICS – GRAMMAR – PHILOLOGY

& Andrew CARSTAIRS-MCCARTHY – WHAT IS LINGUISTICS?

Week 4: Section II

SOURCES AND PROPERTIES OF HUMAN LANGUAGE

& George YULE – THE ORIGINS OF LANGUAGE

Week 5: Section III

LANGUAGE AS A SYSTEM OF SIGNS AND ITS STRUCTURE

& Charles Sanders PEIRCE – WHAT IS A SIGN?

& Ján HORECKÝ – COMPONENTS AND DIMENSIONS OF A LINGUISTIC SIGN

Otherwise the student will be considered absent.Students will be asked to sit two short credit tests, which will NOT be announced in advance. The SUM of the scores from both tests must be 50% in order for a student to be allowed to take the final exam. Since there are NO RETAKES for the tests, it is advisable for the students to be present at every seminar and prepare in advance.Active participation and presence at seminars is also reflected in the evaluation mark.Students are allowed to miss NO MORE THAN two seminars during the semester.Assessment and evaluation:Continuous assessment: 2 credit tests (50%)Final assessment: exam test (50%) |                                                                                          |
| Výsledky vzdelávania:Aims and objectives:Students will get basic information about literary communication and the character of a literary work. Special attention will be paid to basic elements of poetry, fiction and drama. The aim of the course is also to sustain student's abilities of literary analysis and interpretation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                          |

| Výsledky vzdelávania:The aim of the subject is to make students understand that neither English language learning nor successful research work is possible without the use of various types of dictionaries, containing the whole information on the language, its word stock, functioning and current usage. The students should know the ways the words are presented in linguistic and encyclopaedic dictionaries, specialized ones and thesauri.                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                       |
