Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1., 3., 5.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: 1. Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should the student miss three classes, he/she will not receive credits for the course no matter what his/her overall results are on the tests. The student must be on time for class or he/she will be marked as absent. 2. Credit tests – students will write 2 credit tests – WEEK 6 and 13. There will not be any other retake test for the students who fail. Final assessment: The final grade will be calculated as a sum of two tests. The final grade for the course will be based on the following grading scale : A 93-100% B 86-92% C 78-85% D 72-77% E 65-71% FX 64 and less. Should you have any questions on the above explained forms of assessment, address them to your lecturer at the beginning of the semester.
Learning outcomes: To expand the essentials of upper-intermediate - advanced English grammar in order to make students' language competence better. The course introduces several various grammar topics, e.g., tenses, gerunds and infinitives, passive voice, conditionals, linking words, etc. It familiarizes students with word formation and provides practice of phrasal verbs, prepositional phrases, and idioms.

SEMINARS

The main aim of the seminars is to develop students' knowledge of the linguistic terms and concepts introduced on lectures. The great emphasis will be placed on the ability to understand and to use the key terminology, since this course prepares students for future advanced courses in linguistics. Class time will be spent working through students' responses to various questions related to lectures as well as to the texts students will be asked to read before attending class. Topics of the seminars will follow the content of the Introduction to Linguistics. A Practical Coursebook.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 7.
Course level: I., II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: 1. Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to schedule. Should the student miss two or more classes without relevant reason, he/she will not receive credits for the course no matter what his/her overall results are. The student must be on time for class or he/she will be marked as absent. 2. Continuous and final assessment: Preparation and active participation (50 %) 1. Each student is expected to have their own copy of the class material, to read and analyse them before the lesson (own written preparation is necessary). 2. Active contribution to seminar discussion by presenting information and comments not only from the material assigned by the lecturer, but also from the other sources related to the discussed major linguistic theories and movements, is required. Presentation (50%) Each student is to prepare a 30 minute presentation related to the given area of linguistics (details will be specified on the first, introductory seminar) Final assessment is given by the sum of continuous assessment (active participation 50%, presentation 50%). There is no retake for any part of the continuous assessment. FINAL EVALUATION = final assessment mark: Mark % A 92 – 100 B 87 – 91 C 82 – 86 D 77 – 81 E 65 – 76 FX 64 and less

Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: 1. Class attendance Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Transfers among the groups are possible. Should you miss one class you are required to attend the class with a different group or excuse your absence producing a valid doctor's certificate. Those students, who miss more than two classes without a good reason will not receive credits for the course. Students must be on time for each class (maximum 10 mins. late). 2. Preparation Students are expected to make their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to bring your own copy of the required study materials or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, your presence in the class will not count. If students arrange with the tutor in advance not to attend a class session, they will be expected to submit any assignment on the subsequent session. 3. The final result is calculated according to the following formula: $(1st\ CREDIT\ TEST) + (2nd\ CREDIT\ TEST) = FINAL\ MARK$ A 93 – 100 B 86 – 92 C 78 – 85 D 72 – 77 E 65 – 71 FX 64 - 0
Learning outcomes: The course is designed to provide an overview of language policy of the European Union. By completing this course the students develop a sound knowledgebase concerning policy making in the EU with an emphasis on language policies and related areas, such as education, science, research, legal communication, and cultural interchange. The students will be informed about the most important documents concerning language policies of the European Union to promote free movement of people and information. Simultaneously, the students will understand how language policies influence Europeanization of the society, support cultural interchange and contribute to the development of human rights, freedom and equality in a multicultural, multiethnic and multinational Europe reflected by the slogan: “United in Diversity”.

Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6., 8.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Final evaluation is a result of comprehensive evaluation of written assignments and active participation of students in the course during semester.
Learning outcomes: The course is aimed to deepen theoretical knowledge in the field of Public International Law as well as on practical preparation of students, i. e. their ability to apply acquired capabilities and knowledge in the analyses of the moot (simulated) case. The primary goal of the course is to prepare students for participation in the JESSUP International Moot Court Competition. During lessons students shall obtain detailed information about the JESSUP International Moot Court Competition (regarding mainly analysis of the case, evaluation of legal materials in foreign language etc.). Following completion of the course, students shall be able to work in teams solving particular international legal problem including preparation of pleadings and presentation of those to the court.
