University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KAaA/ ACW1m/15	Course name: Language Skills - Academic Writing
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Attendance and Participation: You may miss one class without penalty. If you miss two or more, you will fail the course. If you are repeatedly late, you will not be allowed to complete the course. You are expected to contribute to the class discussion and to provide insightful comments on the readings and on your classmates' work. I will lower your grade by one letter if you are consistently silent, disengaged, or unprepared. Drafts, Deadlines, and Late Work: Throughout the course, I will encourage you to write multiple drafts of each paper. Writing multiple drafts will improve your writing and take some of the stress out of the final deadline. Ideally, you will have a well developed rough draft well before the deadline, so you should always be able to get something in. Your work will be read and critiqued by your fellow classmates, so please make your drafts as complete as possible and come prepared for a lively discussion. Late work will not be accepted. If any draft or paper is late, you will fail the entire course. Continuous Assessment: You will write two short papers, three pages each, and one long paper of at least eight pages. A page means approximately 330 words. Assignment descriptions are posted on ffweb. The final paper may be a revision of one of the short papers. For each paper, I will break down your overall grade into four categories: Concept, Structure, Language, and Documentation. On your final paper, if you receive an FX in any one of these four categories, you will fail the course. Any paper not properly documented will receive an FX overall. It breaks down like this: Paper 1 25% A 93-100% Paper 2 25% B 86-92% Paper 3 50% C 78-85% D 72-77% E 65-71%
Learning outcomes: To teach grammatical and rhetorical forms, improve students' research and analytical skills, and clarify the conventions of academic discourse with special emphasis on developing a thesis which is complex enough to sustain a graduate level paper.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: "Students are expected to attend all classes and to view all required films, to be punctual and attentive, and to participate vigorously but politely in discussions of films and readings. The participation grade is based on attendance and a demonstrated engagement with the course material. Assessment and evaluation: 1. 30% Attendance and active participation 2. 50% Presentation 3. 20% Quick terminology test 1. Active participation, completed homework assignments: (30% of final grade) Students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Students are expected to bring their own ANNOTATED copies of the required materials, complete the assigned tasks and exercises and participate in class discussions. Students are required to work with Moodle and download the required materials from there. Every student is responsible for their access of the system and should be able to log into Moodle no later than by WEEK 3. Students may at any point during the semester ask about their current score in active participation and may ask for extra assignments if unable to speak in the class. 2. Presentation: (50% of final grade) Students will be asked to give a group presentation which will aim to compare and contrast an English literature text and its movie adaptation. All the requirements for the presentation will be specified during the introductory class and a sample presentation will be given in WEEK 5. Students must NOT read their presentations, but must be ready to speak in their own words. Each member of the group will receive the same number of points, so students are advised to cooperate closely. Students are to prepare discussion points for their fellow colleagues. 4. A quick terminology test (20% of final grade) will be taken in WEEK 5 and will check students' ability to understand literary and film terms. These terms are essential for our in-class discussions and presentations. There are no retakes of the test."
Learning outcomes: This course aims at analyzing chosen texts from English literature from the unlikely point of adaptation. In comparing texts and their adaptations, students will expand their existing textual analysis skills, explore the dialogue among multiple iterations of a single story. Course activities promote active learning, with most class sessions incorporating a mix of discussion, mini-lectures, and group work.

COURSE INFORMATION LETTER

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KH/DBalm/15	Course name: History of the Balkans after the WWII
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 1 / 1 Per study period: 14 / 14 Course method: present
Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 3.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Submission of a seminar paper prepared in the required quality and based on the specialised literature. The paper should consist of at least 5 standard pages (1.5 line spacing, TIMES NEW ROMAN font 12), however, it should not have more than 10 pages, it must contain notes, bibliography of at least 10 books. Students will present their papers in ppt. presentation (the part of which must be also an annex in the form of maps, portraits or other visual material). Preparation for individual seminars by studying the texts assigned in advance. Final assessment in which students will prove the knowledge acquired within the subject.
Learning outcomes: The course characterizes the Balkan states after 1944, when the Second World War ended on the major part of the Balkans. With the aim to clarify key moments it describes some crucial after-war moments, pays attention in particular to the establishment of left-wing resistance and its influence on after-war fate of individual countries. The course informs about transition of individual Balkan countries to the living conditions of peace. Emphasis is put on gradual sovietisation of Romania, Bulgaria, Albania and Yugoslavia. The course also defines main political, economic and cultural features of individual Balkan states in after-war period. Attention is paid to the specific development in Greece (civil war) and Yugoslavia (conflict between Tito and Stalin). The course describes circumstances of dissolution of Yugoslavian communist organization and establishment of plurality system in individual republics and crisis moments of development in Croatia, Bosna and Hercegovina, and Kosovo until 1992, i.e. until official date of dissolution of SFRJ. It explains war events connected with the dissolution. It also tries to answer the question what chance peace had in Yugoslavia and in this connection it analyses the role of non-governmental organizations and peace movements. By completing the course, students will be able to evaluate the history of the Balkans in the specific period without historical myths and clichés, which have been built in the specialised literature in last 30 years.
Brief outline of the course: War and resistance. Importance of resistance movements for further development. End of war in Romania. Assumption of power by Romanian communists. End of war in Bulgaria and transition of Bulgaria to communist totalitarianism. Issue of resistance and after-war development in Albania. Yugoslavia in 1944-1946.

Liberation of Greece and civil war in 1947-1949.
 Tendencies of development in the Balkan states in 1950-1990.
 Conflict between Tito and Comintern and path of Yugoslavia outside the blocks.
 Development in Yugoslavia until the beginnings of 1980S.
 Path of Bulgaria as a loyal Soviet ally. Zhivkov's regime in Bulgaria. Collapse of Bulgarian socialism.
 Romanian path from Soviet sphere. Nicolae Ceaușescu. Bloody anti-communist revolution.
 Cyprus crisis and relations between Greece and Turkey.
 War conflicts on the territory of Yugoslavia (1991-1995)
 Autonomous areas in 1991-1995 (RSK, HB etc.). Reflection of civil war in popular culture (in literature, film, theatre and music).

Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Class attendance Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Transfers among the groups are not possible. In case you miss one class you are required to excuse your absence with a valid doctor's certificate. In case you miss more than two classes, you will not receive credits for the course. You must be on time for class. Should you miss the first ten minutes of a particular seminar session your presence in the class will not count. Preparation Students are expected to make their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to bring your own copy of the required study materials or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, your presence in class will not count. If you arrange with the tutor in advance not to attend a class session, you will be expected to submit any assignment on the subsequent session. Assessment During the course there will be two credit tests. A 100-93, B 92-86, C 85-78, D 77-72, E 71-65, FX 64-0 Only those students are eligible to enroll for the final oral exam, who achieve at least 65 points from the two credit tests. The oral exam is composed of two parts: Part1: Presentation of a seminar project based on the recommended literature list and analysis of teaching practice. 0-5 points for professional application of theoretical knowledge of TEFL methodology during teaching practice 0-5 points for the correct presentation and analysis of the observation sheets from teaching practice 0-5 points for the quality of presentation: style, content, academic vocabulary, and grammatical correctness Part2: Discussing a randomly selected topic according to the syllabus of the subject. 0-5 points for the content and the presented factual knowledge based on the recommended literature; 0-5 points for the quality of the delivery of the response (the speech is clear, and easy to follow, the knowledge is presented in a logical and coherent way);

0-5 points for the language used (grammatical correctness, and academic vocabulary)
30-28A, 27-25B, 24-22C, 21-19D, 18-16E, 15-0FX
The final mark is calculated as the sum of the exam results from the two credit tests and the oral part.

Learning outcomes:

The course is designed to help students understand and use the concepts of didactics and connect the knowledge of this subject area with the problems of teaching English as a foreign language. The students will obtain a general overview of didactics and the special characteristics of language teaching.

Conditions for course completion: Assessment and evaluation: Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should students miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are. Continuous assessment: Students are expected and politely required to actively participate in each lesson (active participation = participation in discussions based on having read the required texts and watched the required films). Each student needs to prepare notes from reading and/or film assignments (more will be explained by the instructor) on a weekly basis, and an essay (analysis) on a topic chosen by the lecturer. Should students fail to provide either of the two compulsory parts, they will not receive credits. Final assessment: Final grade will be calculated as a sum of score for assignment(s) - weekly assignments (50%), essay (50%). (No assignment, plagiarism and other unacceptable practices will be awarded 0 points.) FINAL EVALUATION: A 93-100% B 86-92% C 78-85% D 72-77% E 65-71% FX 64 and less Learning outcomes: The course is designed to instruct students in the art of cinematic discourse and provide them with a set of information that will help them develop and/or improve essential analytical skills in interpreting contemporary American cinema. It also invites students to participate more judiciously in the analysis of American cinema with the intention to enable them question their own role as passive spectators and increase their ability to watch films actively and critically. Course content: In this course we will examine major issues in film theory and contemporary approaches to understanding film. Since the 1970s, scholars have developed a variety of critical methods for the study of media texts, and this course focuses on the most viable ones to provide students with tools necessary to interpret films as socio-cultural and ideological productions.

Notes:

For seminars with Mgr. Demjanová, PhD.:

The language of the course is Slovak. Students are expected to have a very good English language competence, lack of such competence will not be excused when evaluating student's interpreting and will have an effect on the final assessment. The course is not recommended to the first-year students, since a very high command of English on the C1+ level is required. The course is recommended to those students who have attended consecutive interpreting courses during their bachelor studies.

Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 2.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Two credit tests are intended for weeks 7 and 13. The date of the test may change, and the students will be notified about the change sufficiently in advance. The tests will verify students' knowledge of materials covered during seminars and assigned for home preparation. In order to pass the subject, the sum of the scores from the two tests must be at least 65%. A student cannot pass or fail a single test, what matters is the final score after they have taken both. There will not be any re-take tests. Regular seminar attendance is expected; more than two absences will adversely affect getting credit and final grade, no matter what student's overall test results are. Students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. They are expected to bring their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should they fail to bring their own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, they will be marked as absent. In case of any questions regarding the subject, please contact the instructor: veronika.babjakova@student.upjs.sk The grading standards establish the following criteria for evaluation: 100%-92% A 91%-87% B 86%-82% C 81%-77% D 76%-65% E 64% and less FX
Learning outcomes: The subject is aimed to work with EU legal texts in order to introduce terminological registers, basic translation methods and techniques and various stylistic layers of the texts.

COURSE INFORMATION LETTER

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KAaA/ SFS/18	Course name: Skills for Success
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 2., 4.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Conditions for completing the course: a) regular attendance and active participation (max. permitted absence: 1x180 min) - 40 % b) group presentation of the topic chosen from the course syllabus during the last lesson and feedback to team members - 60 %
Learning outcomes: The course focuses on soft and hard skills necessary to become successful on the labour market within the shared corporate services centres and its objective is to provide students with a set of effective communication tools. The companies associated within the Business Service Center Forum (BSCF) of the American Chamber of Commerce in Slovakia employ more than 31,000 full-time employees and have identified soft communication skills on one hand as the most important skills but on the other hand as at least developed competences of graduates entering the labour market. The aim of the course is to contribute to enhancement of soft and hard skills which are necessary for working not only in the shared services centres, but also widely applicable on the labour market. After completing the course, students will be able to communicate more assertively, solve conflicts arising on the workplace, receive and give feedback effectively, but they will also know the basis of working in accounting systems or in programming languages.
Brief outline of the course: Module 1 – Verbal & Non-verbal Communication – the module will be divided into two blocks of topics. Block A (productive conversation) – people think that simple talking means good conversation. Why do misunderstandings occur? But communication is not only about talking. Productive conversation requires much more than ability to talk. In this block, students will get answers to questions such as “how to assure the other person that we are listening properly, what to do and why to do that?”; “in what situation and how to ask a right question to get the answer?” or “how to be authentic and make an impression of being a competent and responsible employee?”. This block also includes role play for techniques and scenarios of productive conversation as well as finding the balance between Defence and Request.

Block B (assertive communication) – assertive communication will be presented to students as a tool for expressing their own feelings and thoughts without being aggressive or using passive behaviour. In this block, the lecturer will also focus on the following issues:

- How assertive are you? To know oneself is the best starting point (role play).
- Assertive rules and Transactional Analysis according to Eric Berne.
- Aggressive – assertive – passive types of behaviour. Also passive – aggressive. How to identify them and how to react properly?
- Effective strategies for dealing with others, taking into account assertiveness and cooperation level. When it is appropriate to use “destruction strategy”? Is compromise the golden mean?
- Good assertive techniques.

The module will last for 180 minutes and the language of instruction will be English.

Lecturer: Mgr. Martin Gbúr (T-Systems Košice)

Module 2 – Conflict Management – The aim of the module is to introduce the conflict situations as moments we often find hard to avoid in the workplace, which is why it is important to know how to efficiently manage and communicate them to find the solution. The trainer will teach students the strategies and techniques of how to manage conflicts. Knowing when and how to apply them will help the course students manage conflict situations efficiently. By the end of the module, the students will learn how to:

- discuss the nature of the conflict, the fact that it can be constructive or destructive, that learning to overcome the barriers when managing conflict can help them build their career;
- distinguish 5 most frequent styles of solving conflicts and improve their conflict-solving skills by learning which one to employ or which one to avoid;
- discuss how conflict-solving can improve their relationships, enhance their cooperation skills and increase their professional efficiency;
- discuss how their attitude influences the perception of conflict situation and how it helps to solve conflict constructively.

The module will last for 180 minutes and the language of instruction will be English.

Lecturers: Mgr. Eva Hruščová, PhD., Mgr. Katarína Maťašová (LafargeHolcim Košice)

Module 3 – Microsoft Excel – The aim of the module is to present users the functions of Microsoft Excel mostly used in the business environment of shared services centre. By the end of the module, students will know (inter alia) how to:

- import data among individual databases;
- format and edit sheets;
- use basic formulae and operate data analyses;
- create graphs

The module will last for 180 minutes and the language of instruction will be Slovak/English.

Lecturer: Martina Machová, MBA (DELL Bratislava)

Module 4 – Time Management

The module will last for 180 minutes and the language of instruction will be English.

Lecturer: Ing. Peter Rusiňák, PhD. (BSCF AmCham)

Module 5 – Personal Brand - Business set-up

The module will last for 180 minutes and the language of instruction will be English.

Lecturer: Mgr. Matúš Draganovský (SUVko Coaching Košice)

Module 6 – Feedback – We constantly hear about feedback and everyone knows how important feedback is and everyone wants to know whether his/her performance and success are appreciated.

However, the lecturer will outline what is the difference between “feedback” and “effective feedback”. The aim of this module is to explain how to give/get effective feedback that leads to higher performance and better behaviour on the workplace. Within the feedback module, the following topics will be presented to students:

- What is feedback? What possibilities (types, variants) do we have? Steps in the process of giving/receiving feedback.
- Difference between criticism and feedback, its parameters.
- In which situations we give feedback?
- What will we achieve by feedback (what we want to achieve, solve, ...)?
- Rules for effective and supporting feedback – verbal and non-verbal stimuli, exercises, key aspects of effective feedback, push & pull forms of feedback.

The feedback module will also include a final group presentation which is included in overall assessment of each student. The presentation will take place in front of audience consisting of the course lecturers and students and team members will give feedback to their team colleagues.

The module will last for 180 minutes and the language of instruction will be English.

Lecturer: Ing. Štefan Mikloš, MBA (IBM Košice)

Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 3.
Course level: II.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to schedule. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should the student miss three or more classes, he/she will not receive credits for the course no matter what his/her overall results are on the tests. The student must be on time for class or he/she will be marked as absent. Continuous assessment: Students are expected and required to actively participate in each lesson (active participation = participation in discussions based on having read the required texts) and to present work required by the lecturer. Should students fail to meet the requirements (two presentations), they will not receive credits. Students are required to read all texts given by the lecturer in order to participate in discussions - if they fail to participate in discussions they will be marked absent. Final assessment: The final grade will be calculated as a sum of grades from two presentations (80%) plus the active participation (20%) FINAL EVALUATION : A 93-100% B 86-92% C 78-85% D 72-77% E 65-71% FX 64 and less
Learning outcomes: The main objective of the course is to develop and improve essential analytical skills in dealing with translation of documentary films and to acquire knowledge of the basic techniques and methods when dealing with problems of such translation.
Brief outline of the course: The course introduces essential issues, terms and theory that help to overcome the basic problems when translating documentary films. Focus is on theoretical knowledge as well as practical exercises during which students acquire familiarity and basic skills in translating documentary films. Audiovisual translation needs specific approach when encountering problems that are specific for such translation, and requires theoretical knowledge of theory of documentary films as well.
