Course ID: KGER/ SYN/12	Course name: The Syntax of German
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 1 / 1 Per study period: 14 / 14 Course method: present
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 3.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: participation in seminars, regular preparation for seminars; final exam (summary exam from morphology and syntax of the German language) consists of written test verifying the theoretical and practical knowledge
Learning outcomes: Students can, both in individual sentences and in longer texts, explain position of constituents in different types of German sentences and are familiar with specific features of compound sentences in the German language, with particular attention paid to subordinate clauses. After completing the course, students can analyse German individual sentences and sentences in longer texts in terms of traditional and dependency syntax.
Brief outline of the course: - sentence (definitions, constituents, word order) - modifier (syntactic and semantic description) - types of sentences in German - sentence models - compound sentences in German language (general principles, coordination and subordination types): - subordinate sentences (frequent types of subordinate sentences – relative clauses, clauses of purpose, clauses of reason, temporal clauses etc.) - infinite and participle structures Interpretations and analyses are based on both traditional and dependency syntax.
