Výsledky vzdelávania:

This course is designed to help students explore British popular fiction, i.e. the texts that are not studied in traditional literature history classes, as they stand outside the canon. It is the aim of this course to teach students to critically examine and analyse the significance and cultural impact of texts they would normally consider leisure reading. Also, the course poses questions such as: What is the difference between high and low culture? What is the place of popular fiction within literature? Can popular fiction be analysed in the same manner as literature? What is genre and how is it significant for popular fiction?

Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:

Student evaluation is based on three criteria:

TWO CREDIT TESTS 70%; CONTINUOUS PREPARATION 10%, and ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION 20%. To receive credits for this course students must pass the two credit tests; continuously and timely submit their reports and attend each class according to the schedule. Attendance is followed during the online sessions too.

TESTS constitute 70% of the final mark:

Ordinarily, student coursework is evaluated by letter grades, which are assigned a value based on a 100-point scale gained from two credit tests plus points for continuous preparation and active participation. The final mark is assigned according to the following scale:

A 100-93

B 92-86

C 85-78

D 77-72

E 71-65

FX 64-0

Students who are unable to take a credit test at the scheduled time due to a documented condition should contact the lecturer as soon as the need is apparent to discuss make-up examination accommodations and procedures. Students absent from a scheduled credit test will be examined by the lecturer separately in an ORAL EXAM to collect information about their level of preparedness. Oral exams will be realized during the lecturer's consultation hours as soon as possible after the missed credit test. The content of the oral examination will be equivalent with the content of the missed credit test but may last longer than a written test and can include deeper analysis of certain problem areas of the course.

CONTINUOUS PREPARATION constitutes 10% of the final mark (maximum 10 points):

Students are expected to prepare reports for each class by reading and processing the study materials and the required literature.

Formal requirements for the home assignments:

Minimum 2 but maximum 3 pages in Microsoft Word editor: letter type Times New Roman; letter size 12, spacing 1.5, 34 lines with 2865 characters per page with spaces. The report's header must contain the student's name and surname, study group, number of the given week according to the syllabus of the course and the title of the topic for the week. The final document must be saved in Printable Document Format (PDF). Ignoring any of these criteria will automatically lead to the refusal of the submitted report.

Content requirements for the assignment:

Students must present the content of the reading assignment synthesized in a clear and structured way: highlighting key information and data as well as presenting logical connections between them. The submitted report must represent the student's thorough understanding of the content and the problem area discussed in the reading assignment.

WARNING: Reports must be original work of the author! Any violation of copyright or breach of anti-plagiarism rules and regulations of the university will inevitably lead to disciplinary procedures! Repeated and systematic plagiarism will lead to the loss of credits assigned for completion the course!

Deadline and the format of the report:

Students must mail their home assignments to the following email address: rozenfeld.julius2@atk.sk by Saturday 24:00 each weak. The reports must be mailed in PDF format. No other formats are accepted! No late submissions will be accepted unless separately negotiated with the supervisor of the course!

ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION constitute 20% (maximum 20 points) of the final mark:

All students must attend all classes regardless they are organized face-to-face or online. Students must join the class sessions on time. Should anyone miss the first ten minutes of a class, will be marked as absent from the class. Points for active participation are assigned ONLY to the students who actively contribute to the learning process during the sessions with joining discussions!

Volunteer work in extracurricular activities that are organized by the Department of the British and American Studies which clearly contribute to the students' professional development such as: lectures and workshops, career week activities, organization of open-door days, language competitions, conferences, Olympiads, and other similar activities are fully supported! Should these activities be organized during the regular session times, volunteers will be acknowledged as if they had participated in the regular class session.

ABSENCE DUE TO ILLNESS

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

There may be other activities which can validate missing a class or several classes, for example participation in high-quality international competitions, scientific research, conferences, or other relevant activities, which clearly contribute to the professional development of the student but final decision about the validity of the presented excuse fully falls in the lecturer's competency. Regular full-time or part-time employment is not an acceptable excuse for a missed class.

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these test dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these test dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

Attendance and Participation: You may miss two classes without penalty. You will fail the course if you miss more than two classes or are late more than three times. Hopefully, you'll be eager to come and eager to speak up in class. If, however, you attend but are consistently mute and mysterious, I will lower your grade by one letter. Drafts, Deadlines, and Late Work: Throughout the course, I will encourage you to write multiple drafts of each paper. Writing multiple drafts will improve your writing and take some of the stress out of the final deadline. Ideally, you will have a first draft well before the deadline, so you should always be able to get something in on time. If a paper or draft is late, you may email it to me anytime, but I will reduce the grade by one letter per day. You must complete all of the assignments in order to pass. Continuous Assessment: You will write two, one page papers, a three page paper, and a six page final paper. There will also be occasional quizzes which will be worth ten percent of your grade. Assignment descriptions are posted on ffweb. For each paper, I will break down your overall grade into four categories: Concept, Structure, Language, and Documentation. On your final paper, if you receive an FX in any one of these four categories, you will fail the course. There is no final exam. Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:

Student evaluation is based on three criteria:

SPEECH DELIVERY 80%; CONTINUOUS PREPARATION 10%, and ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION 10%. To receive credits for this course students must deliver impromptu, extemporaneous, manuscript, and memorized speeches of different length; continuously and timely submit their reports and attend each class according to the schedule. Attendance is followed during the online sessions too/

Ordinarily, student coursework is evaluated by letter grades, which are assigned a value based on a 100-point scale gained from speeches plus points for continuous preparation and active participation. The final mark is assigned according to the following scale:

A 100-93

B 92-86

C 85-78

D 77-72

E 71-65

FX 64-0

SPEECH DELIVERY constitutes 70% of the final mark. During the course, students are required to prepare speeches of different genre and actively participate in debates and discussions on topics listed in the syllabus.

Speeches are marked according to the following scheme:

0/1/2 points for correct presentation of facts and research results;

0/1/2 points for the range and quality of academic vocabulary;

0/1/2 points for accuracy and correct use of grammar;

0/1/2 points for pronunciation and the correct voice and tone;

CONTINUOUS PREPARATION constitutes 10% of the final mark (maximum 10 points):

Students are expected to prepare speeches for each class by reading and processing the study materials and the required literature.

Formal requirements for the home assignments:

Minimum 650 but maximum 1300 words typed in Microsoft Word editor: letter type Times New Roman; letter size 12, spacing 1.5, 34 lines with 2865 characters per page with spaces. The header must contain the student's name and surname, study group, number of the given week according to the syllabus of the course and the title of the topic for the week. The reports must be submitted in Printable Document Format (PDF).

Content requirements for the assignment:

Students must present the content of the reading assignment synthesized in a clear and structured way: highlighting key information and data as well as presenting logical connections between them. The submitted speech must represent the student's thorough understanding of the content and the problem area discussed in the reading assignment.

WARNING: Speeches must be original work of the author! Any violation of copyright or breach of anti-plagiarism rules and regulations of the university will inevitably lead to disciplinary procedures! Repeated and systematic plagiarism will lead to the loss of credits assigned for completion the course!

Deadline and the format of the report:

Students must mail their home assignments to the following email address: rozenfeld.julius2@atk.sk by Saturday 24:00 each week. The speeches must be mailed in PDF format. No other formats are accepted! No late submissions will be accepted unless separately negotiated with the supervisor of the course!

ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION constitute 10% (maximum 10 points) of the final mark:

All students must attend all classes regardless they are organized face-to-face or online. Students must join the class sessions on time. Should anyone miss the first ten minutes of a class, will be marked as absent from the class. Points for active participation and attendance are assigned only when the student actively contributes to the learning process during the sessions with joining discussions!

Volunteer work in extracurricular activities that are organized by the Department of the British and American Studies which clearly contribute to the students' professional development such as: lectures and workshops, career week activities, organization of open-door days, language competitions, conferences, Olympiads, and other similar activities are fully supported! Should these activities be organized during the regular session times, volunteers will be assigned the points for active participation as if they had participated in the regular class session.

ABSENCE DUE TO ILLNESS

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

There may be other activities which can validate missing a class or several classes, for example participation in high-quality international competitions, scientific research, conferences, or other relevant activities, which clearly contribute to the professional development of the student but final decision about the validity of the presented excuse fully falls in the lecturer's competency. Regular full-time or part-time employment is not an acceptable excuse for a missed class.

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these teste dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test session. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

COVID -19 UPDATE

Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the majority of classes will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual classes).

Week 1 and week 2 classes will be contact seminars, to explain/clarify/discuss everything necessary (if the situation allows).

The remaining weeks (3-12) will be online via MS Teams (changes may apply according to the pandemic situation).

However, if the situation allows, CREDIT TESTS will be written during Tutorials on contact classes (in smaller groups and bigger classrooms). Specific date and time will be announced via Noticeboard week ahead (changes may apply according to the pandemic situation).

1. Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule, also in the online environment. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Students are allowed to miss two classes at the most. Should they miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are on tests. Students must be on time for class or they will be marked as absent, also in the online environment.

2. Active participation, completed homework assignments - students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. They are expected to bring their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should they fail to bring their own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, they will be marked as absent.

3. CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT – Language skills (LS) as a subject comprises 3 parts (1- reading and speaking, 2- listening and vocabulary, 3- grammar) . Students will take 2 credit tests, presumably during tutorial weeks. The date of the test may change. All three parts of the subject will be included in the tests and they will be tested on the same day; however, each part will be considered separately. At the end of the semester , within each part of LS separately, your partial scores will be calculated based on the results of partial credit tests.

Final assessment and evaluation:

The student will receive final credits when getting minimum mark set for their study group for each of the three parts of Language skills (LS). In such case the final credits will be calculated as an average of all percentage results from all LS parts. If students fail one part of LS, they fail the whole subject and cannot receive any credits. There will not be any re-take tests for those who failed to achieve the pass level.

Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:

Due to the precautions taken as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, the course will run primarily online via MS Teams platform, with the first two weeks allowed for contact sessions where we will discuss-explain-agree on everything that needs clarification. Online classes will take place according to the schedule and our plan; the only difference will be the online environment.

Assessment and evaluation:

To complete the course, students need to complete both parts of the assessment - continuous and final. Continuous assessment requires students' active participation in each lesson (participation in discussions based on reading required texts and watching required films). Each student will also be asked to prepare short written assignments on a weekly basis to be able to contribute to the discussion about individual films. If a student fails to provide these assignments, he/she will not receive 30% of the final evaluation. To complete the course, students must also successfully pass the essay-question test at the end of the course. The test comprises 70% of the final grade.

It is also expected that students attend each class according to the schedule - both contact and online classes. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should someone miss three or more classes, he/she will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are, also in the online environment.

Final assessment:

The final grade will be calculated as a sum of the score for assignment(s) - assignments (30%), test (70%).

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule, which applies to both contact and online classes. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should students miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are.

FINAL EVALUATION :

A 93-100%

B 86-92%

C 78-85%

D 72-77%

E 65-71%

Course content:

The course presents an overview of American cinema, focusing primarily on Hollywood production (both classic and contemporary). Covered topics include Hollywood style, film techniques, studio and star system, and the analysis of their relationship to society.

Aims and objectives:

The main objective of this course is to provide students with a set of information that will help them develop and/or improve essential analytical skills in interpreting contemporary American cinema. The course will enable students to acquire knowledge of major developments in American cinema, from silent films to the present day cinema, and explore their connections with broader socio-historical context. It also attempts to increase students' appreciation of diverse styles and genres, as well as help them recognize how some of the popular genres express social and cultural tensions. One of the main aims of this course, however, is to enable students question their own role as passive spectators and increase their ability to watch films actively and critically.

Considering the fact that most of the courses take a rather anglocentric point of view, it is necessary to introduce other issues and make the students aware of regional diversity of Britain. A single course is not sufficient to cover such a broad topic, therefore, Regions of the UK focus on Scotland as one of the regions. By covering a variety of topics similar to those already known to students primarily from the Introduction to British Studies, this course shall try to elicit a discussion about similarities and differences, encouraging students to contribute their own findings and areas of interest.

Výsledky vzdelávania:

Cieľom kurzu je oboznámiť študentov z vybranými textami modernej a súčasnej slovenskej literatúry, pričom predmetom záujmu je primárne reflexia rodovej problematiky, rozdelenia úloh v spoločnosti, a spoločenského zriadenia, ktoré toto rozdelenie ovplyvňuje. Kurz tematicky aj chronologicky nadväzuje na poznatky zo slovenskej literatúry získané počas stredoškolského štúdia, pričom sa snaží byť akýmsi prirodzeným pokračovaním stredoškolského kurikula - dôraz je kladený najmä na texty napísané v 20. a 21. storočí, a to konkrétnie na texty menej známych autorov a — hlavne — autoriek. Počas kurzu si študenti budú mať možnosť doplniť teoretické poznatky z oblasti slovenskej literatúry, ako aj rozvíjať praktické zručnosti: čítanie s porozumením, analýzu textu a kritické myšlenie.

Výsledky vzdelávania:

The course deals with food theory. Students are introduced to how food intersects with other vectors of identity, such as race, class, nationality and gender. Within the field of food and gender special attention will be paid to the construction of masculinity and queerness through food; the division between the public area of the dining room and the domestic arena of the kitchen; sex and reproduction, and food obsession in anorexia, bulimia and obesity.

The objective is: Help students become informed consumers of food by being critical of its highly diverse ideological productions. Food historian Warren Belasco affirms that "If you want to create a better future, start by learning how to cook. In our quick-and-easy age, it's one of the most subversive things you can do." Knowing how to cook, where food comes from, what effects food production has on the natural environment as well as the causes of the recurrent famines in the world, serves to question both the principles of capitalism and industrialization and challenge hegemonic food practices.

Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:

Student evaluation is based on three criteria:

TWO CREDIT TESTS 70%; CONTINUOUS PREPARATION 10%, and ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION 20%. To receive credits for this course students must pass the two credit tests; continuously and timely submit their reports and attend each class according to the schedule. Attendance is followed during the online sessions too.

TESTS constitute 70% of the final mark:

Ordinarily, student coursework is evaluated by letter grades, which are assigned a value based on a 100-point scale gained from two credit tests plus points for continuous preparation and active participation. The final mark is assigned according to the following scale:

A 100-93

B 92-86

C 85-78

D 77-72

E 71-65

FX 64-0

Students who are unable to take a credit test at the scheduled time due to a documented condition should contact the lecturer as soon as the need is apparent to discuss make-up examination accommodations and procedures. Students absent from a scheduled credit test will be examined by the lecturer separately in an ORAL EXAM to collect information about their level of preparedness. Oral exams will be realized during the lecturer's consultation hours as soon as possible after the missed credit test. The content of the oral examination will be equivalent with the content of the missed credit test but may last longer than a written test and can include deeper analysis of certain problem areas of the course.

CONTINUOUS PREPARATION constitutes 10% of the final mark (maximum 10 points):

Students are expected to prepare reports for each class by reading and processing the study materials and the required literature.

Formal requirements for the home assignments:

Minimum 2 but maximum 3 pages in Microsoft Word editor: letter type Times New Roman; letter size 12, spacing 1.5, 34 lines with 2865 characters per page with spaces. The report's header must contain the student's name and surname, study group, number of the given week according to the syllabus of the course and the title of the topic for the week. The final document must be saved in Printable Document Format (PDF). Ignoring any of these criteria will automatically lead to the refusal of the submitted report.

Content requirements for the assignment:

Students must present the content of the reading assignment synthesized in a clear and structured way: highlighting key information and data as well as presenting logical connections between them. The submitted report must represent the student's thorough understanding of the content and the problem area discussed in the reading assignment.

WARNING: Reports must be original work of the author! Any violation of copyright or breach of anti-plagiarism rules and regulations of the university will inevitably lead to disciplinary procedures! Repeated and systematic plagiarism will lead to the loss of credits assigned for completion the course!

Deadline and the format of the report:

Students must mail their home assignments to the following email address: rozenfeld.julius2@atk.sk by Saturday 24:00 each week. The reports must be mailed in PDF format. No other formats are accepted! No late submissions will be accepted unless separately negotiated with the supervisor of the course!

ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION constitute 20% (maximum 20 points) of the final mark:

All students must attend all classes regardless they are organized face-to-face or online. Students must join the class sessions on time. Should anyone miss the first ten minutes of a class, will be marked as absent from the class. Points for active participation are assigned ONLY to the students who actively contribute to the learning process during the sessions with joining discussions!

Volunteer work in extracurricular activities that are organized by the Department of the British and American Studies which clearly contribute to the students' professional development such as: lectures and workshops, career week activities, organization of open-door days, language competitions, conferences, Olympiads, and other similar activities are fully supported! Should these activities be organized during the regular session times, volunteers will be acknowledged as if they had participated in the regular class session.

ABSENCE DUE TO ILLNESS

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

There may be other activities which can validate missing a class or several classes, for example participation in high-quality international competitions, scientific research, conferences, or other relevant activities, which clearly contribute to the professional development of the student but final decision about the validity of the presented excuse fully falls in the lecturer's competency. Regular full-time or part-time employment is not an acceptable excuse for a missed class.

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these test dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

Should these activities be organized during the regular session times, volunteers will be acknowledged as if they had participated in the regular class session.

ABSENCE DUE TO ILLNESS

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

There may be other activities which can validate missing a class or several classes, for example participation in high-quality international competitions, scientific research, conferences, or other relevant activities, which clearly contribute to the professional development of the student but final decision about the validity of the presented excuse fully falls in the lecturer's competency. Regular full-time or part-time employment is not an acceptable excuse for a missed class.

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these test dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

COVID -19 UPDATE

Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the majority of classes will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual classes).

Continuous assessment:

Students are required to attend (online) classes regularly. No more than two absences are allowed, also in the online environment. Should a student come to a class without home preparation or late he or she will be marked absent. More than two absences will result in FX.

Students will be required to read selected texts before each (online) session and to work with them during the seminars. Classroom performance (attendance, participation, active engagement in debate, etc.) will make up a total of 20% of the final mark. A photo essay to be submitted by the end of week 11 will make up 40% (specific instructions will be provided via email and in class) and a Quiz written in class in week 11 will make up remaining 40% of the final evaluation. In order to be awarded final credits each student must obtain minimum 50% from all the three parts of assessment together.

Each student is required to have their own copy of the seminar materials. Students are required to prepare their seminar assignments seriously and in time. Failing to do so will result in considering the student absent for the given seminar session. Please DO NOT come to class unprepared.

The following grading scale will be applied:

Mark %

A 90 – 100

B 80 – 89

C 70 – 79

D 60 – 69

E 50 – 59

FX 49 - 0

Výsledky vzdelávania:

This course explores popular cultural “makings” of masculinity, femininity, and sexuality through typical representation of gender within popular culture. Investigating diverse cultural forms such as TV series, film, and music videos, this course will look into the ways in which gendered and sexual identities are shaped by, and in turn shape, popular understandings of gender. In particular, we will analyze how such critical factors as ethnicity, race, gender, class, age, region, and sexuality are constructed in popular culture. As case studies, we will examine TV series, movies and music videos.

- To understand the interrelation of gender and popular culture, including historical frameworks and methodology of relevant disciplines in relation to the study of gender and culture.
- To understand the interlocking systems of power which produce differences among men, women and between women and men in various cultural settings.
- To become familiar with theoretical texts, debates, language and theoretical issues in the study of gender and culture.

- To demonstrate critical and independent thought.

Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:

Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the course will run primarily online via MS Teams (lectures and individual classes). First and second-week classes will be contact, to explain/clarify/discuss everything necessary (if the situation allows), the remaining weeks (3-12) will be online (changes may apply according to the pandemic situation).

Continuous assessment:

To complete the course, students need to complete both parts of the assessment - continuous and final. Continuous assessment requires students' active participation in each lesson (participation in discussions based on reading required texts). Unprepared students, students who will not have read individual texts in advance of each class, will be marked as absent. This applies to both forms of classes - contact and online.

Part of the continuous assessment are two tests - The mid-term test covering topics 1-5 and the End-of-term test covering topics 6-11. Each student needs to get a combined score of no less than 65% to be allowed to take the final exam (This applies only to students who receive five credits for this course; students receiving three credits do not need to take the final exam. For those students, the final assessment is a combined score from the two tests).

Final assessment:

The final assessment is determined solely by students' score during the final -oral exam. The exam will be taken during the exam period (Jan-Feb). Two retakes are possible; the most recent score always counts.

The instructor will post exam dates in the AIS at the beginning of December, and students will sign up for the exam well in advance in the AIS. Any registration changes have to be performed no less than 24 hours before the exam takes place. Depending on the pandemic situation, the oral exam will be carried out in contact classes or online.

Students who fail to achieve the required minimum on Mid-term and End-of-term tests have failed the class and will not proceed to the final exam.

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule, also in the online environment. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should students miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are.

The grading scale for this compulsory course for BASb, BASb (in comb.), AJEIEb, AJFJEIEb, and AJNJEIEb is:

A 93-100%

B 86-92%

C 78-85%

D 72-77%

E 65-71%

FX 64 and less

Scale for RSb is:

A 90-100%

B 80-89%

C 79-70%

D 60-69%

E 50-59%

FX 49 and less

Výsledky vzdelávania:

The course is intended as an introductory course for American Studies undergraduate students to provide an introduction to some of the central themes that have organized American culture from its very discovery. We will meet some of the key figures in American history, and look at how they think about their nation in a variety of different modes, from fiction, to sermons, to poetry, and film. These writers and thinkers, from a number of different racial, ethnic, class, and gender positions, will tell us stories about the key moments in American history, its triumphs and its shames, and the continuities between its past, present, and future. The focus will be on reading a large number of short pieces and selections from longer works rather than complete books in order to generate a wide-ranging knowledge of American culture.

The main objective of this course is to gain familiarity with some of the recurrent aspects and terms in American culture and how they change over time, and possess an introductory sense of some of the critical works of American studies and how they relate to their own historical contexts.

COVID -19 UPDATE

Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the majority of classes will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual seminars and lectures).

Week 1 and week 2 classes will be contact seminars and lectures, to explain/clarify/discuss everything necessary (if the situation allows).

The remaining weeks (3-12) will be online via MS Teams (changes may apply according to the pandemic situation). Tests, however, will be written during contact seminars, if the situation allows.

Continuous Assessment:

• Regular Class Attendance

Students are allowed to miss no more than 2 seminars for whatever reason, also in the online environment. Please reserve these for when you are sick or have other serious reasons to be absent since you only have these 2 options and no more! Once you have missed more than 2 seminars (contact or online), you will not be allowed to continue the course and obtain the credits. Should anyone come unprepared, he or she will be asked to leave and considered absent from the seminar. The same applies to failure to participate in class activities and discussion. Students are expected to complete their readings prior to each class and bring a copy of readings with them to class.

• Tests

Students will write two tests (in week 6 and in week 12) which will cover materials assigned for home preparation, materials discussed in seminars and lecture materials. The test will be written in contact classes, if the situation allows. However, changes may apply according to the pandemic situation. In case of bad pandemic situation, the tests will be written via online platform. The SUM of the scores from these two tests must be AT LEAST set minimum for their study group (50% RSb; 65% BASb komb; AJEIEb) in order for a student to be awarded the final mark.

Final Assessment 100% = test 1 (40%) + test 2 (60%)

Two written tests taken during weeks 6 and 12, covering materials assigned for home reading, discussed in seminars and lectures. There are no retakes so please keep this in mind and do not ask for any, official or unofficial.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to talk to your instructor before or after classes or, preferably, during office hours. Do not send email unless absolutely necessary and remember that in addition to teaching and preparing for classes, we have many other duties which make it impossible for us to check our emails constantly and to reply within 24 hours. COVID -19 UPDATE

Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the majority of classes will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual classes)

Continuous Assessment:

- Regular Class Attendance

Students are required to attend (online) classes regularly. No more than two absences are allowed, also in the online environment. Should a student come to a class without home preparation or late he or she will be marked absent. More than two absences will result in FX.

There are no re-takes for presentations. Please keep this in mind and make sure you are always present in (online) class when your presentation is due.

- Active Class Participation (20 points)

Students will be required to read selected texts before each (online) session and to work with them during the seminars.

Each student is required to have their own copy of the seminar materials. Students are required to prepare their seminar assignments seriously and in time. Failing to do so will result in considering the student absent for the given seminar session. Please DO NOT come to class unprepared.

A way of earning points for active participation is by contributing your knowledge and opinions to the discussion and interacting with your colleagues. These opinions should be based on your home preparation and reading.

Do not expect to earn points for active participation if all you do is say a word or two occasionally or when asked. You are expected to interact with your colleagues, answer their questions as well as those asked by the teacher and ask relevant questions yourself.

- Final Presentation (30 points)

Each student will choose their own topic from the very broad area of topics introduced by the syllabus. Please, make sure you choose something you like, find interesting and would like your colleagues to know about. Do not choose the exact same issues discussed in our seminars! You will be asked to apply the theoretical information you have studied during the semester to the analysis of your chosen topic or issue and present it to your colleagues in a 10 - 12 minutes presentation. All the topics must be approved by the teacher and submitted no later than during our seminar in week 9.

Classroom performance (attendance, participation, active engagement in debate, etc.) and a presentation to be delivered in week 11 or 12 will make up together 100% of continuous assessment. In order to qualify for the final exam all students must receive minimum 50% of continuous assessment (both parts together).

Final Assessment:

There will be a final written exam taken during the examination period covering the reading materials, in-class discussions and topics given in the syllabus. Every student is entitled to 2 retakes if necessary, which means 3 chances for passing the exam.

In order to be awarded final credits, each student must receive 50% minimum from the written test.

The following grading scale will be applied:

Mark %

A 90 – 100

B 80 – 89

C 70 – 79

D 60 – 69

E 50 – 59

FX 49 - 0

Výsledky vzdelávania:

Throughout (especially the second half of) the 20th century, the Humanities have gradually evolved towards a holistic, descriptive concept of culture. This course will offer students the chance to trace this evolution through a brief introduction to the birth, development and consolidation of the so-called 'British school' of cultural studies. Thus, some of the most important concepts and theoretical contributions will be presented even if the ultimate aim of the course is to offer a selection of contexts in which students should be able to put such concepts and theories into practice.

Overall, this course will invite students to access the 'context' behind all 'texts' under analysis, placing emphasis on ideological and identity-related questions. In order to do so, guidelines will be provided that may well serve to study and analyse all kinds of cultural products and materials, not necessarily of a literary nature, including e.g. TV programmes, music videos, promotional materials, humoristic texts... The course will thus foster a global, holistic concept of 'text', as well as provide critical analysis tools to be applied to a wide range of genres.

Emphasis will be placed on the acquisition of (1) theoretical and practical knowledge that will enable students to specialise in English, gender and cultural studies; (2) the mechanics of critical analysis; and (3) strategic skills enabling students to put their knowledge into practice, thereby having an impact on their society. Such skills should prove useful not only in research but also in a wide range of professional environments including teaching, translation, intercultural mediation and the media.

Assessment and evaluation:

1. Attendance:

Students are expected to attend each class according to schedule. Classes in Week 1 of the semester will be taught in the classroom in person. The remaining classes, including the oral exam, will be taught online, through MS Teams, according to the schedule (Thursdays, 8:55-10:25). Instructions regarding MS Teams will be provided during the first seminar. Attendance is compulsory in both online and in-person classes.

Each student is allowed 2 absences at most. Important information regarding the final evaluation and the course in general will be discussed during the introductory session, therefore, failing to attend the Week 1 introductory session is ALSO COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. Not logging into an online class is COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. More than two missed seminars will result in failing the course, irrespective of exam or essay results. Students must be on time for class.

2. Active participation, completed homework assignments: (15 points)

Students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Students are expected to have their own ANNOTATED copies of the required materials, complete the assigned tasks and exercises (available on UPJS OneDrive/MS Teams and during the lessons) and participate in class discussions.

3. Reflective essays: (30 points)

Students are required to submit 3 short reflective essays (250-500 words each, 10 points each) discussing the studied concepts and applying them in analyses of contemporary events (as presented in the media). The essays will be due in Weeks 5, 9, and 13. Detailed instructions for writing the reflective essays will be provided during the introductory session.

4. Oral exam: (55 points)

Students will sit an oral exam in Week 12. The oral exam will be held remotely, through MS Teams. The examination will take place during regular seminar hours (Thursday, 8:55-10:25). The duration of the exam will be 15 minutes per student. Each student will log on separately at a given time slot. Students are required to have their video turned on for the oral exam. At the beginning of the oral exam, students must present their student ID (ISIC), so that their name and photo are clearly visible through the camera.

The oral exam, or any other online teaching session, must not be recorded by the teacher, nor by the students.

To pass the course, the SUM of all points (active participation + reflective essays + oral exam) must be no less than 50.

The final grade for the course will be based on the following grading scale.

Mark %

A 90 – 100

B 80 – 89

C 70 – 79

D 60 – 69

E 50 – 59

Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu:

The course consists of lectures and seminars. Both classes will be conducted in the contact form of teaching, online form of teaching and hybrid form of teaching, depending on the situation. For both lectures and seminars (in any form), students are supposed to be present on time not to hinder the fluency of the teaching process. In case of the online form of teaching lectures and seminars, the tutor of the course will create a meeting in MS Teams to which all students will be invited. The program of lectures and seminars will not change, but students are required to read with comprehension the material specified for the respective week, so they can consult the reading material. Students are not allowed to record either lectures or seminars.

Attendance:

Seminars are obligatory for all students. Students are expected to attend each class (in any form) prepared – it means, they read the text assigned for the respective week with comprehension. During the contact form of teaching, students are allowed to miss no more than 2 seminars and are expected to come prepared and bring their own materials. If a student does not come/come prepared/bring their own materials, they are marked absent. Should a student be marked absent more than 2 times, they automatically receive a failing mark. If the form of seminars is changed from the contact form to the online form, the tutor of the course will open a meeting in MS Teams and the seminar will be conducted online without any change of the program.

Continuous assessment:

Students will write a test covering the topics discussed in prior lectures and seminars (week 7), and prepare a presentation on a selected topic focused on language and gender (week 12). The minimum to pass is 50%. It is a condition for the final exam. Since it is a continuous assessment, there is no retake. In the case the students fail to achieve the required percentage in continuous assessment they will not be allowed to take part in the final exam test and they fail the course. In the case of the online form of the test, students are expected to observe the following regulations: The tests will be mediated via MS Teams. Students are free to choose the preferred mobile equipment for this purpose (mobile phones, tablets, laptops, etc.) but they are responsible for the readiness of the device to be used (technicalities, charged device, etc.). The tutor of the course will make use of any available option to prevent students from cheating during the test. Any identified cheating attempt will result in 0 test score and the student will be reported to the management of the Department and the Faculty.

Final assessment:

The sum of the scores from the test and the presentation must be at least 50% in order for the student to be allowed to take part in the written exam during the exam period.

Final evaluation = final assessment mark:

A 100 – 90%

B 89 – 80%

C 79 – 70%

D 69 – 60%

E 59 – 50%

FX 49% and less

Due to the present situation, the tutor of the course reserves the right to change the test/exam dates in exceptional cases. Students will be informed at least 24 hours prior to the change.

Výsledky vzdelávania:

The aim of the course is for the students to master fundamental linguistic terminology, basic ideas, conceptions and approaches, and develop awareness of the gender-language interface (how language reveals, embodies and sustains attitudes to gender, how language users speak or write in different ways that reflect their sex, etc.)

Each student is to prepare a presentation of one/two (depends on the number of students) topic(s) from the book The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics (Simpson, J. (ed.)). The details about the presentation will be specified during the first, introductory lesson. Each presentation will be followed by discussion. Note: in case of the transition to online teaching through the MS Teams application, the content of the course as well as its formal structure will remain unchanged.

I would like to inform students that in accordance with the valid General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Act no. 185/2015 Coll. Copyright law (intellectual property law), it is not possible to create video or audio recordings of any part of the teaching carried out online or in the classroom. This would violate the law with all the legal consequences.

Výsledky vzdelávania:

Applied linguistics is “the theoretical and empirical investigation of real-world problems in which language is a central issue” (Brumfit 1995: 27). The academic fields connected in one way or another with applied linguistics are, for example, contrastive linguistics, conversation analysis, second language acquisition, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics, pragmatics, forensic linguistics, translation, etc.
