Course name: Derrida's Deconstruction and History

Course type, scope and the method:

Course type: Practice

Recommended course-load (hours):

Per week: 2 Per study period: 28

Course method: present

Number of ECTS credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 2.

Course level: II.

Prerequisites:

Conditions for course completion:

Conditions of continuous control: during the semester a student is continuously assessed according to his/her activity in seminars. To be awarded the credits for the semester, a student must attend the seminars successfully. Assessment in seminars is conditioned by obtaining the respective number of points (1 point is awarded for active participation). Writing and understanding of assigned texts is checked in seminars in the form of written assignment.

Learning outcomes:

The aim of the course is to make students familiar with philosophical thinking of "deconstruction", which wants to be neither a method nor a discourse on the method or a tool of approach to history of philosophy. Students have a chance to be informed about perception of philosophy or history of philosophy as the deconstruction of this history, i.e. with perception of history as the critique of ideology of (traditional) perception of history, which makes basis for the present time.

Brief outline of the course:

- 1) Voice and Phenomenon
- 2) Diferänce
- 3) Structure, Sign, and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences
- 4) Signature, Event, Context
- 5) White Mythology
- 6) Violence and Metaphysics
- 7) Cogito and History of Madness
- 8) "Genesis and Structure" and phenomenology

Course type, scope and the method:

Course type: Lecture / Practice

Recommended course-load (hours):

Per week: 2 / 1 Per study period: 28 / 14

Course method: present

Number of ECTS credits: 4

Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1., 3.

Course level: II.

Prerequisites:

Conditions for course completion:

Students can get a maximum of 90 points for the course: Part 1 of the assessment: participation in the training (30p) - replaces the classic lessons, students choose the date of the training at the introductory first meeting to the course, therefore their participation is necessary. As the training takes place in two days, participation in the entire training is required. If it is impossible to participate in both days of training, the student must change to another date of training, which he will be able to complete. The training takes place partly over the weekend and also outside the school or in the training center in Danišovce (it starts on Thursday evening and ends on Saturday with lunch). The costs of accommodation, meals and travel are paid by the student himself. 2nd part of assessment: workshops (20p) - they replace classic lectures, are held 4 times per semester and for each workshop the student can get 5p (a total of 20p for workshops). Part 3 of the assessment - preparation (10p) and implementation (10p) of block activities in pairs - a total of 20b. Students must send the prepared preparation of the block of activities on the chosen topic for the pair or an individual, which is evaluated with a maximum of 10 points, no later than one week before the date of their training. The preparation should include a clear goal, a description of the selected activities and their goals and justification on the topic, a description of the necessary tools, preparation of questions for discussion as well as activities in stock. The preparation will then be consulted by the lecturers and a possible correction will still be possible. The actual implementation of training activities will be evaluated by a maximum of 10 points, while evaluating the adequacy of selected activities with respect to the selected topic, to fulfill the goal of activities, ability to stimulate group discussion, equal distribution of all members in the group block with other members in the group. The minimum that needs to be achieved from the preparation and implementation of activities is at least 11 points. Part 4 of the assessment - knowledge test (20b). The exam will consist of 5-6 questions related to prevention and the social skills needed in prevention. Students will be able to answer these questions based on the study literature and participation in the training. The minimum number of points required for successful completion of the course in this part of the evaluation is 11 points. In total, students can get 90bp per subject and the final evaluation is as follows: 90 - 82: A 81 - 73: B 72-66: C 65 - 59: D 58 - 54: E 53 and less: FX. Any modifications to the implementation of the course in connection with the current order of the Rector are listed in the electronic board of the course.

Learning outcomes:

To provide students with more detailed information on the psychological aspects of drug prevention through an interesting, engaging explanation of theory and practice. Development of skills for the work of teachers in the field of drug use prevention also thanks to the use of experiential methods in teaching and the possibility of developing professional skills in the work of a teacher and a prevention coordinator at school.

Analysis of basic issues of the genesis of understanding of metaphysics by Heidegger from Being and Time to his posthumously published interview for Der Spiegel magazine, in which he admitted his inability to positively complete the project of metaphysics in a way it was contemplated in his works.

Brief outline of the course:

1. Understanding of metaphysics by Heidegger before the turn – fundamental ontology as metaphysics of existence
2. Understanding of metaphysics by Heidegger after the turn (Introduction to Metaphysics - 1935) – continuing positive understanding as the study of the nature of being
3. Pre-Socratic philosophy (Anaximander, Heraclitus, Parmenides) and metaphysics
4. Critical reception of metaphysics as ontotheology
5. Kant and metaphysics
6. Hegel and metaphysics
7. Identification of philosophy with metaphysics as the study of being – the end of philosophy and understanding of the role of thinking by Heidegger

Conditions for course completion:

Continuous assessment of attendance and activity. Final assessment based upon preparation of an individual project.

Learning outcomes:

To lead a student, through Socrates's dialogue, to the active way of life, development of critical thinking, active position in professional, public, and private life. The substantive aim is to cross closely specialised views of the world as well as willingness and ability to help others in altruistic way. It will concern a return to ancient times through the issue of man – knowing (wisdom and cleverness) and to some renaissance texts (On Dignity of a Human), which offer us a possibility to think of culture and civilisation, art and technology, heights and threats of a man in the period of birth, peak, and crises of development of European mankind.

Brief outline of the course:

By studying philosophical texts - Plato - Politeia – a student will go in more detail through issues, which occupy philosophical thinking of the present. Justice, wisdom, education, knowing, care for soul – these are the topics, which apart from being philosophical issues, occupy thinking of an ordinary man (and, especially, young man looking for orientation of his/her life) Ancient times, Middle Ages, Renaissance, Modern Period – modern science (origin of mathematical natural science), manorial relation to the world. Nature and the world as the object of man subduing power – the only and absolute lord of the world. God - soul – world on the path of a man looking for happiness, delight, and suffering. A man in coordinates of power. Gadamer: Back to Greeks. Heidegger: Letter on Humanism. Several words on one problem: What is a man? What does it mean to philosophy? What is humanism?

What is thinking? What is left behind horizon of our asking?

Prerequisites:

Conditions for course completion:

Assessment depends on student's active approach to fulfilment of study duties, individual work with texts in a library, active work during seminars, but also preparation and submission of a seminar paper at the end of the semester by the agreed deadline.

Learning outcomes:

The aim of the course is to search for relations and interconnections between the Russian thinkers and the Western philosophy. To understand the meaning of paradoxical and aphoristic way of thinking of Lev Shestov through systematic study of his texts. Newness of this way of philosophical thinking for Russia at that time. Shestov's critique of science and scientific reason is revealed through studying the original texts written by the Russian philosophers, what makes students better understand the relation between the Western philosophical traditions in comparison with Russian philosophy and literature. In a seminar paper at the end of semester a student will get a chance to deal with any topic which can be called the Russian idea or Europe and Russia in the texts and contexts of the history of philosophy.

Brief outline of the course:

Russia and Europe. Lev Shestov – Athens and Jerusalem - paradoxical and aphoristic way of thinking. Critique of science and scientific reason. Defence of a man. Socrates as inspiration for searching for one's self. Philosophy in exploration of mysteries and eternal themes for thinking – life, love and hope. Words and deeds. Temporality and eternity. Truth versus lie (falsehood and lie of the so-called "owners of truth"). Power of weakness and weakness of philosophy in confrontation with a commanding brute. What truths does a man need? Forcing truth. Kant and Plato versus everyday life, or constructions fixed in presumptions. Shakespeare - Hamlet or eternal mystery called man. Philosophy of history - great and small Hegels as unlawful candidates for prophetic throne. Spiritual exercises or Tolstoy, Dostoyevsky and Nietzsche as educators of fellows. The power of keys - Socrates, Luther and Erasmus, or eternal strife for man and God.

Learning outcomes:

The aim is to make students familiar with life and work of thinker Hannah Arendt who significantly influenced the Western thinking of the 20th century. Arendt as a talented pupil of K. Jaspers influenced such thinkers as M. Heidegger and Ján Patočka. The study will be focused on the texts written by Arendt, in which she examines ontological and anthropological preconditions of the common world of human life, the world characterized by the fact that it is ruled by reason, but it is also very important that living human beings live in it. The issue of man is crucial topic for Arendt, because thinking about the current state of human affairs seems to be a serious problem of Western thinking - spiritual and political crisis of European mankind. What are the possibilities of rethinking elementary prerequisites of political life? What makes the basis of political reality? The Gap between Past and Future. Vita activa and condition humaine. What is Authority? What is Freedom? Greek polis and household. Polis and paideia. The Crisis of Education. The Crisis of Culture.
