Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KPS/ KOGPS/11	Course name: Cognitive Psychology
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 3 / 2 Per study period: 42 / 28 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 7
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 2.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: During the semester, the student is required to complete three tasks: A) Written examination (max. number of points is 15, the required number of points is 8). The date is by default scheduled after a consultation week. B) Presentation of a seminar work on a chosen topic (max. number of points is 15, the required number of points is 8). C) Active participation during the seminar (max. number of points is 10, the required number is 1). To proceed to the final exam, it is necessary to obtain more than half of the total points that can be gained during the semester (note that a minimum number of points for activities A, B and C should be fulfilled as listed above). The final exam is in a written form. A student can get a maximum of 60 points. To pass, a student needs to obtain 31 and more points (note that credits will not be awarded to a student who gets less than 31 points from the final exam and whose sum of points obtained during the semester and the final exam is less than 51). The final mark is created by adding the points that the student gained during the semester and the final exam. At least 90 points must be obtained to obtain an "A" rating, 80-89 points to obtain an "B" rating, 70-79 points to obtain a "C" rating, 60-69 points to obtain a "D" rating and 51 to obtain an "E" rating 51 -59 points.
Learning outcomes: The main goal of the course is to acquaint students with cognitive psychology, as a scientific discipline that deals with the study of human cognition, and to provide them with the current knowledge related to human cognition. In addition, the course also emphasizes the ability to properly understand this knowledge and apply it. For this purpose, the course provides not only an overview of the main theories of selected cognitive processes and the broader context of the discipline but also practical illustrations and systematic encouragement of critical thinking. The main goal of seminars is to train the ability to use and adequately present the acquired knowledge, connect this knowledge to other related areas, think about it independently, discuss it critically and, last but not least, to flexibly and creatively solve various related model activities.
Brief outline of the course:

History of cognitive psychology. Research of cognition in the period of psychology as a scientific discipline. The emergence of cognitive psychology.

Cognition - general characteristics. Structure of cognitive processes. Paradigms in cognitive psychology: S-R scheme, information processing model, evolutionary approach, connectionist approach. Stimuli and mental representations.

Perception - sensory processes. Perception - organization of the perceptual field, object recognition, specific types of perception.

Attention - selection and division of attention. Theories of attention. Automatic and controlled processes and attention.

Memory - models, types of memory, memory processes.

Learning - classical conditioning, operant conditioning and other types of learning.

Mental representations and ideas. Thinking – concepts and operations. Language and thinking. Thinking and speech.

Judgment, decision making, problem solving, creativity. Current research of cognitive processes.

Course level: I., N
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: The conditions for completing the course are as follows: 1. Active participation in exercises 2. Submission of reflection within the set deadline on the selected topic. Attendance at seminars is mandatory - the student may have two absences during the semester. The evaluation of the course and its subsequent completion will be based on clearly and objectively set requirements, which will be set in advance and will not change. The aim of the assessment is to ensure an objective and fair mapping of the student's knowledge while adhering to all ethical and moral standards. There is no tolerance for students' fraudulent behavior, whether in the teaching process or in the assessment process.
Learning outcomes: Successful mastery and demonstration of knowledge in the field of conflict management and control of basic rules. The method of teaching the subject will be oriented to the student. Lecturers will be interested in students' needs, expectations and opinions so as to encourage them to think critically by expressing respect and feedback on their opinions and needs. The content of the curriculum will be based on primary and high-quality sources that will reflect the topicality of the topics so as to ensure the connection of the curriculum with other subjects and also the connection of the curriculum with practice. Students will be expected to take an active approach in lectures and seminars with an emphasis on their independence and responsibility. The student is able to demonstrate an understanding of an individual's behavior in various conflict situations. Course ID: KF/LMM/15	Course name: G.W. Leibniz: Discourse on Metaphysics
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 4.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Assessment depends on student's active approach to fulfilment of study duties, individual work with texts in a library, active work during seminars, after interruption presents study preparation and submission of a seminar paper at the end of the semester by the agreed deadline.
Learning outcomes: To present the issue of modern philosophy in the context of history of philosophy (the Middle Ages, Renaissance) between philosophy and culture by returning to the sources of philosophy – Ancient thought, mainly its peak period (classical Greek philosophy). The aim is to draw the attention to the importance of studying the texts by G. W. Leibniz who, through the optics of ancient philosophers, leads us to the returns and the need to study and think about the ideas and texts of the entire philosophical tradition.
Brief outline of the course: To present the issue of modern thinking in the context of tradition - G. W. F. Hegel: History of Philosophy. Leibniz and history of philosophy. Leibniz: Meditations on Metaphysics. The problem of settlement with medieval culture (scholasticism and the so-called "second scholasticism") - Descartes and Leibniz – the problems of metaphysics. Leibniz and Heidegger on the need to return to the sources of ancient thinking – mainly to its peak period (classical Greek philosophy). The aim is to draw the attention to the importance of studying the works of philosophers. Leibniz and his returns to tradition – the attempt for reconsideration of scholasticism and original texts related to the history of the ancient philosophy. Leibniz, Patočka and history of philosophy.

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KF/DFSCm/15	Course name: History of Philosophy in Slovakia and Bohemia
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 / 1 Per study period: 28 / 14 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 4
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Within this discipline, a student is required to: 1. Actively participate in seminars, i.e. to make his/her own written preparation for seminar (précis). It should be used primarily by a student as preparation and basis for analysis and interpretation of a source text for the respective seminar and secondarily as a proof that a student has studied the text. At the end of each seminar a student must submit to the teacher his/her précis related to the topic analysed in seminar. Participation in seminars is mandatory in the course of the semester. In case of excused absence the consultation on substitution with the course guarantor is necessary. 2. Produce a semester paper (based on agreement with the guarantor or teacher of the course) 3. Pass an exam (test)
Learning outcomes: The aim is to familiarize students with the development of philosophical thinking in Slovakia and Bohemia from the Middle Ages to the 20th century, to assess the influence of foreign streams of thinking on Slovak and Czech philosophy and to identify its original features.
Brief outline of the course: Beginnings of religious and philosophical thinking in literature from the period of the Great Moravia. Philosophical thinking of Constantine. Philosophical thinking in Slovakia and Bohemia in the period of reformation and counter-reformation (Jan Hus, J. A. Comenius, Prešov School and University of Trnava). Enlightenment philosophy in Slovakia and Bohemia. Response to Herder's and Kant's philosophy in Slovakia. The Štúrs and Hegelianism and anti-Hegelianism in Slovak philosophical thinking. Response to Nietzsche's philosophy in Slovakia and Bohemia. Positivism in Slovakia and Bohemia. Religious philosophy in Slovakia and Bohemia. Philosophy of E. Rádl and J. Patočka.

Course ID: KF/ISL/15	Course name: Leibniz: Individual Substance and Logical Subject
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 1 / 1 Per study period: 14 / 14 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: mandatory attendance in seminars, final test using the source texts.
Learning outcomes: Introduction to crucial works of Leibniz, aimed at tracing the terms of individual substance and logical subject and their conjunction.
Brief outline of the course: The subject is focused on evolution of Leibniz's thinking from early works up to the well-known Discours de Métaphysique, with the aim to establish main milestones leading to determination of the term "individual substance", which (also) in this work coincides with the term "logical subject".

Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: continuous assessment of participation and activity of students in seminars student's individual seminar paper
Learning outcomes: To outline the issue of history of philosophy and modern times. The specific feature of philosophy of Leibniz (one of the creators of modern society) is a shift from modern thinking, which wants to separate medieval and scholastic ways of thinking. Leibniz finds solutions for coping with medieval culture in its creative revision and return to the sources of ancient thinking, especially to its classical period (classical Greek philosophy) in order to formulate the basic problems of further development of European thinking. The aim is to point out the importance of studying the works written by philosophers (especially those by Leibniz) and through these works to attempt for returns and re-thinking of certain issues of philosophy.
Brief outline of the course: Leibniz and new thinking. God - soul - world as basic issues of philosophical reflection of Leibniz. Meditations as a way of Leibniz's thinking about basic issues of philosophy and science, but also freedom of a man. Four pillars of European culture. Freedom and happiness as fundamental topics of reflections of new philosophers.

Course ID: KF/DaT/15	Course name: M. Foucault: Discipline and Punish
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Conditions of continuous control: during the semester a student is continuously assessed according to his/her activity in seminars. To be awarded the credits for semester, a student must attend seminars. Assessment of students in seminars is conditioned by receiving the respective number of points (1 point for each active participation). Reading and understanding of the assigned texts can be checked during the seminars.
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to present philosophical thinking of the “Professor of the History of Systems of Thought”, genealogist and (although he did not like this description) post-structuralist thinker M. Foucault. Students have a chance to become familiar with (postmodern) genealogical understanding of history as the critique of ideologies that support (traditional) history. On the basis of Foucault’s analysis of establishment of prison and the related developing punishment practices, the seminar in written discourse attempts to draw the attention to the controversial points of our (optimistic) historical understanding of progressive ideas.
