Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Seminar paper of required quality prepared on the basis of the specialised literature. The paper should consist of at least 5 standard pages (1.5 line spacing, TIMES NEW ROMAN font 12), however, it should not have more than 10 pages, it must contain notes, bibliography containing at least 10 books. Students will present their papers in ppt. presentation (which must include also an annex in the form of maps, portraits or other visual material). Preparation for individual seminars by studying the texts assigned in advance. Final assessment on which students will prove the knowledge acquired within the course.
Learning outcomes: The aim of the cycle of lectures and exercises is to make students familiar with characteristic features of process of establishment and formation of modern states of the nations of Southeastern Europe in the 19th and 20th centuries. Students will learn not only main facts and representatives from the history of individual nations, but by comparing the monitored problems they will learn how to distinguish general features of nation-forming process on the Balkan Peninsula in the 19th century which were identical with development of nations in Western and Central Europe, and the specific features of the Balkans which were different from those of more developed parts of Europe. Students who will complete the course will be able to understand historical roots of Balkan nationalisms, many of which are seen also at present.
Brief outline of the course: Particularities of Balkan history, periodization, definition and territorial delimitation. Historiography of history of nations of the Southeastern Europe in the 19th and 20th centuries – significant works in the Central Europe, analysis of publications of authors coming from the Balkan Peninsula, Western historiography and the Balkans. Economic, social and cultural preconditions of uprisings in the Balkans in the 19th century. Historical development of Serbia in the period of first uprisings after establishment of autonomous Principality of Serbia(in the years 1804 – 1835). Greek national movement in 1821-1832. Relationship between Greeks and Ottoman Empire in the first half of the 19th century. Illyrian movement – ideological preconditions, representatives and cooperation of Yugoslav nations. The Croats and Slovenes in the period of revolutions 1848/1849. Islamization of Bosna and Hercegovina in the Modern Era – in 1463-1594 (its consequences for overall development of Bosna and Hercegovina until 1878). Eastern Question at the end of Modern Era. The Third Balkan Crisis (1875-1879), the Congress of Berlin and the Bosnian Crisis. Graduation of conflicts in the Balkans. The Fifth Balkan Crisis 1903-1913. The First World War in the Balkans, its influence on individual Balkan states and nations. Police officers versus partisans: civil war on the territory of former Yugoslavia. SFRJ – Socijalistička Federativna Republika Jugoslavija (1943-1992). Kosovo – brief history until 1912. Civil war in Yugoslavia (1991 - 1995) – causes, periodization and brief description. Croatian War of Independence and Operation Storm 1995. Culture of nations of the Southeastern Europe (music, film, literature...).

Number of ECTS credits: 6
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 4.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Preparation of two seminar papers of required quality elaborated on the basis of specialized literature and presented by a student during exercise + presentation in ppt. (at least 10 slides). The paper should consist of at least 5 standard pages (1.5 lining, TIMES NEW ROMAN, 12), however, it should not have more than 10 standard pages, it must contain notes and bibliography. Active participation in seminar-preparation for individual seminars by means of studying the text assigned in advance. Final written test.
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to present the history of the "long" 19th century from the French Revolution (1789) to the First World War (1914-1918), in political, social and cultural connections. The priorities include development of European great powers and especially development of their political system, history of great ideological systems of the 19th century, history of symbolical aspects of revolutions, history of intellectual movements and cultural institutions with political importance. The course also involves analysis of basic terms connected with the 19th century, i.e. revolution, secularization, nationalism, imperialism, liberalism, feminism. The course is primarily focused on development in Europe and USA, but also other issues of development on the Far East, dissolution of the Ottoman Empire or decolonization of Africa will be discussed. The course graduates will be able to understand basic development trends of the 19th century and to interpret also new definitions and issues connected with this period.
Brief outline of the course: The French Revolution as a phenomenon of European history of Modern Era (Causes of crisis of the French society, stages and course of the French Revolution) The Napoleonic Era in the history of France, division of the world after the Congress of Vienna in 1814-1815 Development in Europe in 1815 – 1848 (particularities of the so-called "Metternich" system, establishment and activities of the Holy Alliance, events of 1830s and 1840s in Europe, liberation movements in Serbia and Greece). Decline of the Ottoman Empire in the 19th century (Demonstrations of timar-sipahi system crisis, reforms of Sultan Selim III (1761 – 1808), the Tanzimat period (1839–1876). The Eastern question at the end of Modern Era (the Third Balkan Crisis (1875-1879), Congress of Berlin and the Bosnian Crisis).

Revolutionary years 1848 - 1849 (revolutionary years and their causes and consequences for development of European continent, description of revolutions in individual countries).

Historical development of the Far East in 1839 – 1905 (involvement of great powers and division of influence, the so-called “Opium Wars”, Sino-French war, Meiji reforms in Japan, Sino-Japanese war, "Boxer" Rebellion in China, Russo-Japanese war).

Development in USA in the 19th century – on the road to isolationism + causes, course and results of civil war in the USA (1861-1865)

The end of colonial division of the world and attempts at its new division (Dissolution of Spanish colonial domination on American continent, Characteristics of colonial division of the world at the end of the 19th century, fighting for colonies in Africa at the end of the 19th century and at the beginning of the 20th century).
