Learning outcomes: To outline the issue of history of philosophy and modern times. Brief outline of the course: Leibniz and new thinking. God - soul - world as basic issues of philosophical reflection of Leibniz. Meditations as a way of Leibniz's thinking about basic issues of philosophy and science, but also freedom of a man. Four pillars of European culture. Course ID: KF/DaT/15	Course name: M. Foucault: Discipline and Punish
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Conditions of continuous control: during the semester a student is continuously assessed according to his/her activity in seminars. To be awarded the credits for semester, a student must attend seminars. Assessment of students in seminars is conditioned by receiving the respective number of points (1 point for each active participation). Reading and understanding of the assigned texts can be checked during the seminars.
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to present philosophical thinking of the “Professor of the History of Systems of Thought”, genealogist and (although he did not like this description) post-structuralist thinker M. Foucault. Students have a chance to become familiar with (postmodern) genealogical understanding of history as the critique of ideologies that support (traditional) history. On the basis of Foucault’s analysis of establishment of prison and the related developing punishment practices, the seminar in written discourse attempts to draw the attention to the controversial points of our (optimistic) historical understanding of progressive ideas.
Brief outline of the course: 1) Torture 2) Punishment 3) Discipline 4) Prison
