Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Two tests are intended for weeks 7 and 14. The tests will verify students' knowledge of materials covered during seminars and assigned for home preparation. In order to pass the course, the sum of the scores from the two tests must be at least 65%. There will not be any re-take tests. If a need arises to change the date of the test due to holiday or absence of a lecturer, the students will be informed well in advance through the official website of the Department/by email. Regular and active seminar attendance is required; more than two absences will make it impossible for the lecturer to assign a final grade. If a student is not prepared, he/she will be considered absent. Should the students fail to bring their own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, they will be asked to leave the classroom. Students shall respect their distribution into individual seminar groups. In case of any questions, please, contact the lecturer: karin.miklossiova@student.upjs.sk alebo karin.miklossiova@gmail.com. Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Assessment depends on student's active approach to fulfilment of study duties, individual work with texts in a library, active work during seminars, after interruption presents study preparation and submission of a seminar paper at the end of the semester by the agreed deadline.
Learning outcomes: To present the issue of modern philosophy in the context of history of philosophy (the Middle Ages, Renaissance) between philosophy and culture by returning to the sources of philosophy – Ancient thought, mainly its peak period (classical Greek philosophy). The aim is to draw the attention to the importance of studying the texts by G. W. Leibniz who, through the optics of ancient philosophers, leads us to the returns and the need to study and think about the ideas and texts of the entire philosophical tradition. It is Leibniz, his life and work, that is also timeless in relation to solving the issues of East and West, Europe - Russia - China.
Brief outline of the course: To present the issue of modern thinking in the context of tradition - G. W. F. Hegel: History of Philosophy. Leibniz and history of philosophy. Leibniz: Meditations on Metaphysics. The problem of settlement with medieval culture (scholasticism and the so-called "second scholasticism") - Descartes and Leibniz – the problems of metaphysics. Leibniz and Heidegger on the need to return to the sources of ancient thinking – mainly to its peak period (classical Greek philosophy). The aim is to draw the attention to the importance of studying the works of philosophers. Leibniz and his returns to tradition – the attempt for reconsideration of scholasticism and original texts related to the history of the ancient philosophy. Leibniz, Patočka and history of philosophy.

COURSE INFORMATION LETTER

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KF/ISL/15	Course name: Leibniz: Individual Substance and Logical Subject
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 1 / 1 Per study period: 14 / 14 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: mandatory attendance in seminars, final test using the source texts.
Learning outcomes: Introduction to crucial works of Leibniz, aimed at tracing the terms of individual substance and logical subject and their conjunction.
Brief outline of the course: The subject is focused on evolution of Leibniz's thinking from early works up to the well-known Discours de Métaphysique, with the aim to establish main milestones leading to determination of the term "individual substance", which (also) in this work coincides with the term "logical subject".

Learning outcomes: To outline the issue of history of philosophy and modern times. The specific feature of philosophy of Leibniz (one of the creators of modern society) is a shift from modern thinking, which wants to separate medieval and scholastic ways of thinking. Leibniz finds solutions for coping with medieval culture in its creative revision and return to the sources of ancient thinking, especially to its classical period (classical Greek philosophy) in order to formulate the basic problems of further development of European thinking. The aim is to point out the importance of studying the works written by philosophers (especially those by Leibniz) and through these works to attempt for returns and re-thinking of certain issues of philosophy.
Brief outline of the course: Leibniz and new thinking. God - soul - world as basic issues of philosophical reflection of Leibniz. Meditations as a way of Leibniz's thinking about basic issues of philosophy and science, but also freedom of a man. Four pillars of European culture. Freedom and happiness as fundamental topics of reflections of new philosophers.

Course ID: KF/DaT/15	Course name: M. Foucault: Discipline and Punish
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 6.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Conditions of continuous control: during the semester a student is continuously assessed according to his/her activity in seminars. To be awarded the credits for semester, a student must attend seminars. Assessment of students in seminars is conditioned by receiving the respective number of points (1 point for each active participation). Reading and understanding of the assigned texts can be checked during the seminars.
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to present philosophical thinking of the “Professor of the History of Systems of Thought”, genealogist and (although he did not like this description) post-structuralist thinker M. Foucault. Students have a chance to become familiar with (postmodern) genealogical understanding of history as the critique of ideologies that support (traditional) history. On the basis of Foucault’s analysis of establishment of prison and the related developing punishment practices, the seminar in written discourse attempts to draw the attention to the controversial points of our (optimistic) historical understanding of progressive ideas.
Brief outline of the course: 1) Torture 2) Punishment 3) Discipline 4) Prison
