Learning outcomes:

This course is designed to help students explore British popular fiction, i.e. the texts that are not studied in traditional literature history classes, as they stand outside the canon. It is the aim of this course to teach students to critically examine and analyse the significance and cultural impact of texts they would normally consider leisure reading. Also, the course poses questions such as: What is the difference between high and low culture? What is the place of popular fiction within literature? Can popular fiction be analysed in the same manner as literature? What is genre and how is it significant for popular fiction?

Brief outline of the course:

REGULAR STUDENTS:

Course Structure:

The course consists of an introduction and 4 two-week blocks dedicated to different genres of popular fiction. Each block is divided into two parts. During the first week, students read theoretical texts, study the characteristics and history of the respective genre and acquire a critical outlook on the genre. During the second week, students read specific works of the genre and attempt to apply the acquired theoretical concepts in class discussions, as well as in written home assignments.

Seminar Topics:

WEEK 1: INTRODUCTION. Basic information: assessment, readings, etc. Online tests, how to log into Moodle. A note on plagiarism. Can/should we analyse popular fiction? What is cultural studies?

WEEK 2: Gothic Novel 1 / Text: Clive Bloom “Now Welcome the Night: The Origins of Gothic Culture”

WEEK 3: Gothic Novel 2 / Texts: Ann Radcliff The Mysteries of Udolpho (excerpt); Jane Austen Northanger Abbey (excerpt)

WEEK 4: Detective Fiction 1 / Text: John G. Cawelti “The Formula of the Classical Detective Story”

WEEK 5: Detective Fiction 2 / Texts: Sir Arthur Conan Doyle "The Final Problem"; Agatha Christie "The Market Basing Mystery"

WEEK 6: Science Fiction 1 / Text: Adam Charles Roberts “Defining Science Fiction”

WEEK 7: READING WEEK 1 (This is your time to get through the first compulsory novel!)

WEEK 8: TUTORIALS

WEEK 9: Science Fiction 2 / Text: Douglas Adams “The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy”, Book 1 (whole novel)

WEEK 10: Chick Lit 1 / Text: Cris Mazza “Who’s Laughing Now? A Short History of Chick Lit and the Perversion of a Genre”

WEEK 11: READING WEEK 2 (This is your time to get through the second compulsory novel!)

WEEK 12: Chick Lit 2 / Text: Helen Fielding “Bridget Jones’s Diary” (whole novel)

Week 13: ONLINE CREDIT TEST (via Moodle)

Week 14: TUTORIALS

Conditions for course completion: Student evaluation is based on three criteria: TWO CREDIT TESTS 70%; CONTINUOUS PREPARATION 10%, and ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION 20%. To receive credits for this course students must pass the two credit tests; continuously and timely submit their reports and attend each class according to the schedule. Attendance is followed during the online sessions too. TESTS constitute 70% of the final mark: Ordinarily, student coursework is evaluated by letter grades, which are assigned a value based on a 100-point scale gained from two credit tests plus points for continuous preparation and active participation. The final mark is assigned according to the following scale: A 100-93 B 92-86 C 85-78 D 77-72 E 71-65 FX 64-0 Students who are unable to take a credit test at the scheduled time due to a documented condition should contact the lecturer as soon as the need is apparent to discuss make-up examination accommodations and procedures. Students absent from a scheduled credit test will be examined by the lecturer separately in an ORAL EXAM to collect information about their level of preparedness. Oral exams will be realized during the lecturer's consultation hours as soon as possible after the missed credit test. The content of the oral examination will be equivalent with the content of the missed credit test but may last longer than a written test and can include deeper analysis of certain problem areas of the course. CONTINUOUS PREPARATION constitutes 10% of the final mark (maximum 10 points): Students are expected to prepare reports for each class by reading and processing the study materials and the required literature. Formal requirements for the home assignments: Minimum 2 but maximum 3 pages in Microsoft Word editor: letter type Times New Roman; letter size 12, spacing 1.5, 34 lines with 2865 characters per page with spaces. The report's header must contain the student's name and surname, study group, number of the given week according to the syllabus of the course and the title of the topic for the week. The final document must be saved in Printable Document Format (PDF). Ignoring any of these criteria will automatically lead to the refusal of the submitted report.

Content requirements for the assignment:

Students must present the content of the reading assignment synthesized in a clear and structured way: highlighting key information and data as well as presenting logical connections between them. The submitted report must represent the student's thorough understanding of the content and the problem area discussed in the reading assignment.

WARNING: Reports must be original work of the author! Any violation of copyright or breach of anti-plagiarism rules and regulations of the university will inevitably lead to disciplinary procedures! Repeated and systematic plagiarism will lead to the loss of credits assigned for completion the course!

Deadline and the format of the report:

Students must mail their home assignments to the following email address: rozenfeld.julius2@atk.sk by Saturday 24:00 each week. The reports must be mailed in PDF format. No other formats are accepted! No late submissions will be accepted unless separately negotiated with the supervisor of the course!

ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION constitute 20% (maximum 20 points) of the final mark:

All students must attend all classes regardless they are organized face-to-face or online. Students must join the class sessions on time. Should anyone miss the first ten minutes of a class, will be marked as absent from the class. Points for active participation are assigned ONLY to the students who actively contribute to the learning process during the sessions with joining discussions!

Volunteer work in extracurricular activities that are organized by the Department of the British and American Studies which clearly contribute to the students' professional development such as: lectures and workshops, career week activities, organization of open-door days, language competitions, conferences, Olympiads, and other similar activities are fully supported! Should these activities be organized during the regular session times, volunteers will be acknowledged as if they had participated in the regular class session.

ABSENCE DUE TO ILLNESS

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

There may be other activities which can validate missing a class or several classes, for example participation in high-quality international competitions, scientific research, conferences, or other relevant activities, which clearly contribute to the professional development of the student but final decision about the validity of the presented excuse fully falls in the lecturer's competency. Regular full-time or part-time employment is not an acceptable excuse for a missed class.

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these test dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

Learning outcomes:

The main goal of the course is to introduce students into the basics of business communication and correspondence. The course is designed to help students develop the writing skills needed to create clear messages. Special emphasis is placed on spelling, text design, style and the formal aspects of communication. By completing the course, students will be able to actively conduct business correspondence, communicate correctly and accurately in various business situations, actively use graphs and describe statistical findings in presentations, prepare reports for business needs and create their own portfolio with a resume necessary for successful job interviews.

Brief outline of the course:

1. Introduction into business correspondence
2. Basics of email communication
4. Register and its role in email correspondence
5. Style, tone, and mood
6. The customer-supplier sequence
7. Inquires, discussing terms and asking for payment politely
8. How to complain and apologise for mistakes
9. Describing business trends and designing reports
10. Job application and preparation for a job interview

Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. Should the student miss three or more classes, he/she will not receive credits for the course no matter what his/her overall results are on the test(s). The student must be on time for class or he/she will be marked as absent. 2.Active participation, completed homework assignments - students are required to come prepared and do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Students are expected to bring their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to bring your own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, you will be marked as absent. 3.Final assessment – students will take 2 tests, in WEEK 7 and WEEK 12 or 13. Final grade will be calculated as a total sum of grades from the two tests. The final grade for the course will be based on the following grading scale. A 93-100%B 86-92%C 78-85%D 72-77%E 65-71%FX 64 and less. Should you have any questions on the forms of assessment, address them to your lecturer at the beginning of the semester.
Learning outcomes: The course expands the essentials of upper-intermediate and advanced English grammar in order to make students' language competence better. The course introduces several various grammar topics, e.g., tenses, gerunds and infinitives, passive voice, conditionals, etc. It familiarizes students with word formation and provides practice of phrasal verbs, prepositional phrases, and idioms. Since grammar is the foundation for communication, grammar rules help learners develop the habit of thinking logically and clearly. Students will be able to become more accurate when using a grammatically correct language.

Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Continuous Assessment: 1. Attendance All classes through the summer semester will be held online, through MS Teams, according to the schedule. Seminar attendance is compulsory. The maximum number of absences is 2. In case that a student misses more than 2 seminar sessions, they will be awarded an FX-fail for the course, irrespective of their exam/presentation/paper results. Failing to attend the WEEK 1 introductory session is ALSO COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. Not logging into an online class is COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. Students must be on time for class. 2. Active participation, completed homework assignments (15 points) Students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Students are expected to bring their own ANNOTATED copies of the required materials, complete the assigned tasks and exercises (available on UPJS OneDrive/MS Teams and during the lessons) and participate in class discussions. Active participation will amount to 15% of the final mark. 3. Annotated Bibliography (20 points) Students will be asked to submit an annotated bibliography, overviewing the critical literature on a specific aspect of fandom or fan fiction. The bibliography will comprise of a minimum of 5 sources (books or academic journal articles) and a minimum of 600 words. The annotated bibliography is due on Friday, March 12, 2021. Students must NOT PLAGIARISE their bibliographies. No extent of plagiarism (even 1 sentence) is acceptable. Plagiarised papers will be awarded 0 points. Students will not be given the option of rewriting plagiarised papers. The annotated bibliography will amount to 20% of the final mark. 4. Autoethnographic Essay (first draft: 20 points, final draft: 45 points) Students will be asked to write an autoethnographic essay (1000-1500 words) discussing their personal experience as a fan. Within the essay, students will attempt to place their personal experience into the context of the academic debate on fandom (fan studies). The first draft of the essay (at least 700 words) is due on Sunday, April 11, 2021. Students will then critique each other's essays in class in WEEK 9. The final draft of the essay is due on Sunday, April 25, 2021. Details on the content and form of the essay will be provided during the course. Students must NOT PLAGIARISE their essays. Plagiarised essays will be awarded 0 points. Students will not be given the option of rewriting plagiarised essays. The autoethnographic essay will amount to 65% of the final mark.

To pass the course, the SUM of all points (active participation + annotated bibliography + autoethnographic essay) must be no less than 65 points.

Learning outcomes:

This course introduces to students a selection of texts from modern and contemporary Slovak literature with the aim of analysing the role of gender as a social category in these texts. The course is intended as a thematic and chronological continuation of the Slovak literature curriculum covered in standard high school courses. For this reason, the course focuses on 20th and 21st century literature and on texts by lesser known or non-canonical authors, with an emphasis on works by female authors. The course is designed to expand the students' theoretical knowledge in the field of literary studies and in the history of Slovak literature, but also to develop various practical skills: reading comprehension, textual analysis, or critical thinking skills.

Brief outline of the course:

Learning outcomes: The course deals with food theory. Students are introduced to how food intersects with other vectors of identity, such as race, class, nationality and gender. Within the field of food and gender special attention will be paid to the construction of masculinity and queerness through food; the division between the public area of the dining room and the domestic arena of the kitchen; sex and reproduction, and food obsession in anorexia, bulimia and obesity. The objective is: Help students become informed consumers of food by being critical of its highly diverse ideological productions. Food historian Warren Belasco affirms that “If you want to create a better future, start by learning how to cook. In our quick-and-easy age, it’s one of the most subversive things you can do.” Knowing how to cook, where food comes from, what effects food production has on the natural environment as well as the causes of the recurrent famines in the world, serves to question both the principles of capitalism and industrialization and challenge hegemonic food practices.

Different evaluation conditions apply to individual groups. The course is continuation of fundamentals of interpreting acquired during the course Interpreting 1 - Consecutive. Students who have not completed the course are expected to gain the missing knowledge. The languages of the course are English and Slovak. Students are expected to have a very good English language competence, lack of such competence will not be excused when evaluating student's interpreting and will have an effect on the final assessment. The course is not recommended to the first-year students, since a very high command of English on the C1+ level is required.

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KAaA/ INUS/15	Course name: Introduction to American Studies
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 1 / 1 Per study period: 14 / 14 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: The course will run primarily in person; however, the form of individual classes is still subjected to changes due to possible precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic. Should the pandemic situation change, the course will continue in its online form via MS Teams (lectures and individual classes), according to the schedule outlined in the syllabus available in AIS. Continuous assessment: To complete the course, students need to complete both parts of the assessment - continuous and final. Continuous assessment requires students' active participation in each lesson (participation in discussions based on having read required texts). Unprepared students, students who will not have read individual texts in advance of each class, will be marked as absent. This applies to both forms of classes - contact and online. Part of the continuous assessment are two tests - the mid-term test covering topics 1-5 and the end-of-term test covering topics 6-11. Each student needs to get a combined score of no less than 65% to be allowed to take the final exam (The final exam applies only to students who receive five credits for this course; students receiving three credits do not proceed to the exam, for them the final assessment is a combined score from the two tests). Final assessment: The final assessment is determined solely by students' score during the final - in-person exam. The exam will be taken during the exam period (Jan-Feb). Two retakes are possible; the most recent score always counts. The instructor will post exam dates in the AIS at the beginning of December, and students will sign up for the exam well in advance in the AIS. Any registration changes have to be performed no less than 24 hours before the exam takes place. Depending on the pandemic situation, the oral exam will be carried out in contact classes or online. Students who fail to achieve the required minimum on Mid-term and End-of-term tests have failed the class and will not proceed to the final exam. Attendance: Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule, also in the online environment. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Should students miss three or more classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are.

The grading scale for this compulsory course for BASb, BASb (in comb.), AJEIEb, AJFJEIEb, and AJNJEIEb is:

A 93-100%

B 86-92%

C 78-85%

D 72-77%

E 65-71%

FX 64 and less

Scale for RSb is:

A 90-100%

B 80-89%

C 79-70%

D 60-69%

E 50-59%

FX 49 and less

Learning outcomes:

The course is intended as an introductory course for American Studies undergraduate students to provide an introduction to some of the central themes that have organized American culture from its very discovery. We will meet some of the key figures in American history, and look at how they think about their nation in a variety of different modes, from fiction, to sermons, to poetry, and film. These writers and thinkers, from a number of different racial, ethnic, class, and gender positions, will tell us stories about the key moments in American history, its triumphs and its shames, and the continuities between its past, present, and future. The focus will be on reading a large number of short pieces and selections from longer works rather than complete books in order to generate a wide-ranging knowledge of American culture.

The main objective of this course is to gain familiarity with some of the recurrent aspects and terms in American culture and how they change over time, and possess an introductory sense of some of the critical works of American studies and how they relate to their own historical contexts.

Number of ECTS credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Assessment and evaluation: Continuous assessment is a prerequisite for the final assessment - an oral exam (via MS TEAMS). Final assessment - an oral exam will be taken during the regular exam period: Marks: A 90-100%, B 80-89%, C 79-70%, D 60-69%, E 50-59%, FX 49 and less Continuous assessment: Students will be assessed according to their home preparation - assigned reading and the compilation of the glossary of concepts and terms 50 % and their performance in an individual/a pair presentation 50 %. Grades will be as follows: Marks: A 90-100%, B 80-89%, C 79-70%, D 60-69%, E 50-59%, FX 49 and less Learning outcomes: Throughout (especially the second half of) the 20th century, the Humanities have gradually evolved towards a holistic, descriptive concept of culture. This course will offer students the chance to trace this evolution through a brief introduction to the birth, development and consolidation of the so-called 'British school' of cultural studies. Thus, some of the most important concepts and theoretical contributions will be presented even if the ultimate aim of the course is to offer a selection of contexts in which students should be able to put such concepts and theories into practice. Overall, this course will invite students to access the 'context' behind all 'texts' under analysis, placing emphasis on ideological and identity-related questions. In order to do so, guidelines will be provided that may well serve to study and analyse all kinds of cultural products and materials, not necessarily of a literary nature, including e.g. TV programmes, music videos, promotional materials, humoristic texts... The course will thus foster a global, holistic concept of 'text', as well as provide critical analysis tools to be applied to a wide range of genres. Emphasis will be placed on the acquisition of (1) theoretical and practical knowledge that will enable students to specialise in English, gender and cultural studies; (2) the mechanics of critical analysis; and (3) strategic skills enabling students to put their knowledge into practice, thereby having an impact on their society. Such skills should prove useful not only in research but also in a wide range of professional environments including teaching, translation, intercultural mediation and the media.

Brief outline of the course:

Course content:

This course will offer a review of some of the main concepts in use within cultural studies, as well as provide practical context for their application.

The first week session will take place in contact form. From week 2 sessions will be online via MS TEAMS.

Students must read all compulsory reading materials as specified below.

Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: COVID -19 UPDATE Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the majority of classes will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual classes) Continuous Assessment: - Regular Class Attendance Students are required to attend (online) classes regularly. No more than two absences are allowed, also in the online environment. Should a student come to a class without home preparation or late he or she will be marked absent. More than two absences will result in FX. There are no re-takes for presentations. Please keep this in mind and make sure you are always present in (online) class when your presentation is due. - Active Class Participation (20 points) Students will be required to read selected texts before each (online) session and to work with them during the seminars. Each student is required to have their own copy of the seminar materials. Students are required to prepare their seminar assignments seriously and in time. Failing to do so will result in considering the student absent for the given seminar session. Please DO NOT come to class unprepared. A way of earning points for active participation is by contributing your knowledge and opinions to the discussion and interacting with your colleagues. These opinions should be based on your home preparation and reading. Do not expect to earn points for active participation if all you do is say a word or two occasionally or when asked. You are expected to interact with your colleagues, answer their questions as well as those asked by the teacher and ask relevant questions yourself. - Final Presentation (30 points) Each student will choose their own topic from the very broad area of topics introduced by the syllabus. Please, make sure you choose something you like, find interesting and would like your colleagues to know about. Do not choose the exact same issues discussed in our seminars! You will be asked to apply the theoretical information you have studied during the semester to the analysis of your chosen topic or issue and present it to your colleagues in a 10 - 12 minutes presentation. All the topics must be approved by the teacher and submitted no later than during our seminar in week 9.

Classroom performance (attendance, participation, active engagement in debate, etc.) and a presentation to be delivered in week 11 or 12 will make up together 100% of continuous assessment. In order to qualify for the final exam all students must receive minimum 50% of continuous assessment (both parts together).

Final Assessment:

There will be a final written exam taken during the examination period covering the reading materials, in-class discussions and topics given in the syllabus. Every student is entitled to 2 retakes if necessary, which means 3 chances for passing the exam.

In order to be awarded final credits, each student must receive 50% minimum from the written test.

The following grading scale will be applied:

Mark %

A 90 – 100

B 80 – 89

C 70 – 79

D 60 – 69

E 50 – 59

FX 49 - 0

Learning outcomes:

The aim of this course is to introduce students to the basic concepts of Philosophy, Sociology, Religion and Politics from the point of view of Gender Studies. Students will learn about key concepts of feminism, gender, position of women in religion and politics.

COURSE INFORMATION LETTER

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KAaA/RSb/UDSJ/15	Course name: Introduction to the Study of Language
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Lecture / Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 1 / 1 Per study period: 14 / 14 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 4
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 1.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Podmienky na absolvovanie predmetu: The course consists of lectures and seminars. Both classes will be conducted in the contact form of teaching, online form of teaching and hybrid form of teaching, depending on the situation. For both lectures and seminars (in any form), students are supposed to be present on time not to hinder the fluency of the teaching process. In case of the online form of teaching lectures and seminars, the tutor of the course will create a meeting in MS Teams to which all students will be invited. The program of lectures and seminars will not change, but students are required to read with comprehension the material specified for the respective week, so they can consult the reading material. Students are not allowed to record either lectures or seminars. Attendance: Seminars are obligatory for all students. Students are expected to attend each class (in any form) prepared – it means, they read the text assigned for the respective week with comprehension. During the contact form of teaching, students are allowed to miss no more than 2 seminars and are expected to come prepared and bring their own materials. If a student does not come/come prepared/bring their own materials, they are marked absent. Should a student be marked absent more than 2 times, they automatically receive a failing mark. If the form of seminars is changed from the contact form to the online form, the tutor of the course will open a meeting in MS Teams and the seminar will be conducted online without any change of the program. Continuous assessment: Students will write a test covering the topics discussed in prior lectures and seminars (week 7), and prepare a presentation on a selected topic focused on language and gender (week 12). The minimum to pass is 50%. It is a condition for the final exam. Since it is a continuous assessment, there is no retake. In the case the students fail to achieve the required percentage in continuous assessment they will not be allowed to take part in the final exam test and they fail the course. In the case of the online form of the test, students are expected to observe the following regulations: The tests will be mediated via MS Teams. Students are free to choose the preferred mobile equipment for this purpose (mobile phones, tablets, laptops, etc.) but they are responsible for the readiness of the device to be used (technicalities, charged device, etc.). The tutor of the course will make use of any available option to prevent students from cheating during the test. Any identified cheating attempt

will result in 0 test score and the student will be reported to the management of the Department and the Faculty. Final assessment: The sum of the scores from the test and the presentation must be at least 50% in order for the student to be allowed to take part in the written exam during the exam period. Final evaluation = final assessment mark: A 100 – 90% B 89 – 80% C 79 – 70% D 69 – 60% E 59 – 50% FX 49% and less Due to the present situation, the tutor of the course reserves the right to change the test/exam dates in exceptional cases. Students will be informed at least 24 hours prior to the change.
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is for the students to master fundamental linguistic terminology, basic ideas, conceptions and approaches, and develop awareness of the gender-language interface (how language reveals, embodies and sustains attitudes to gender, how language users speak or write in different ways that reflect their sex, etc.)

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KAaA/ CERTb/15	Course name: Language Competences for Language Certificates
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: combined, present
Number of ECTS credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 5.
Course level: I., II., N
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Student evaluation is based on three criteria: TWO CREDIT TESTS 70%; CONTINUOUS PREPARATION 10%, and ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION 20%. To receive credits for this course students must pass the two credit tests; continuously and timely submit their reports and attend each class according to the schedule. Attendance is followed during the online sessions too. TESTS constitute 70% of the final mark: Ordinarily, student coursework is evaluated by letter grades, which are assigned a value based on a 100-point scale gained from two credit tests plus points for continuous preparation and active participation. The final mark is assigned according to the following scale: A 100-93 B 92-86 C 85-78 D 77-72 E 71-65 FX 64-0 Students who are unable to take a credit test at the scheduled time due to a documented condition should contact the lecturer as soon as the need is apparent to discuss make-up examination accommodations and procedures. Students absent from a scheduled credit test will be examined by the lecturer separately in an ORAL TESTING to collect information about their level of preparedness. Oral testing will be realized during the lecturer's consultation hours as soon as possible after the missed credit test. The content of the oral testing will be equivalent with the content of the missed credit test but may last longer than a written test and can include deeper analysis of certain problem areas of the course. CONTINUOUS PREPARATION constitutes 10% of the final mark (maximum 10 points): Students are expected to prepare reports for each class by reading and processing the study materials and the required literature. Formal requirements for the home assignments: Minimum 2 but maximum 3 pages in Microsoft Word editor: letter type Times New Roman; letter size 12, spacing 1.5, 34 lines with 2865 characters per page with spaces. The report's header must contain the student's name and surname, study group, number of the given week according to the syllabus of the course and the title of the topic for the week. The final document must be saved in Printable Document Format (PDF). Ignoring any of these criteria will automatically lead to the refusal of the submitted report.

Content requirements for the assignment:

Students must present the content of the reading assignment synthesized in a clear and structured way: highlighting key information and data as well as presenting logical connections between them. The submitted report must represent the student's thorough understanding of the content and the problem area discussed in the reading assignment.

WARNING: Reports must be original work of the author! Any violation of copyright or breach of anti-plagiarism rules and regulations of the university will inevitably lead to disciplinary procedures! Repeated and systematic plagiarism will lead to the loss of credits assigned for completion the course!

Deadline and the format of the report:

Students must mail their home assignments to the following email address: rozenfeld.julius2@atk.sk by Saturday 24:00 each week. The reports must be mailed in PDF format. No other formats are accepted! No late submissions will be accepted unless separately negotiated with the supervisor of the course!

ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION constitute 20% (maximum 20 points) of the final mark:

All students must attend all classes regardless they are organized face-to-face or online. Students must join the class sessions on time. Should anyone miss the first ten minutes of a class, will be marked as absent from the class. Points for active participation are assigned ONLY to the students who actively contribute to the learning process during the sessions with joining discussions!

Volunteer work in extracurricular activities that are organized by the Department of the British and American Studies which clearly contribute to the students' professional development such as: lectures and workshops, career week activities, organization of open-door days, language competitions, conferences, Olympiads, and other similar activities are fully supported! Should these activities be organized during the regular session times, volunteers will be acknowledged as if they had participated in the regular class session.

ABSENCE DUE TO ILLNESS

A student absent from a class must file a valid doctor's certificate by emailing it in a PDF format to the lecturer as soon as possible. Due reports for the missed class must be submitted according to the syllabus of the course and no later than the following class attended by the student.

In an emergency, if the student is unable to contact the lecturer and mail the valid doctor's certificate or is being treated elsewhere, the lecturer must be informed by sending an email to the following email address: julius.rozenfeld@upjs.sk as soon as possible. In both cases, the student must also file a letter from a physician certifying the date and nature of the illness.

ABSENCE FOR OTHER REASONS

Students who must be absent for reasons other than illness, such as a death in the family or a reason of similar gravity, must contact the lecturer as soon as possible and submit relevant documents that certify the seriousness of the case.

There may be other activities which can validate missing a class or several classes, for example participation in high-quality international competitions, scientific research, conferences, or other relevant activities, which clearly contribute to the professional development of the student but final decision about the validity of the presented excuse fully falls in the lecturer's competency. Regular full-time or part-time employment is not an acceptable excuse for a missed class.

Learning outcomes:

The course is focused on the development of language skills and other competencies that are necessary for successful completion of the Test of English as a Foreign Language known by the acronym TOEFL and obtaining the international language certificate TOEFL iBT (i.e. Internet-Based Test). Students develop the ability to listen with comprehension, speaking, reading and writing through practical exercises and understand the principles of using correct grammar through a variety of topics that may appear in this test. The course also provides a detailed explanation of the processes and recommendations for passing the TOEFL iBT test. By completing the course, students will be able to successfully complete the TOEFL iBT, or equivalent language test.

Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Attendance and Participation: You may miss two classes without penalty. You will fail the course if you miss more than two classes or are late more than three times. Hopefully, you'll be eager to come and eager to speak up in class. If, however, you attend but are consistently mute and mysterious, I will lower your grade by one letter. Drafts, Deadlines, and Late Work: Throughout the course, I will encourage you to write multiple drafts of each paper. Writing multiple drafts will improve your writing and take some of the stress out of the final deadline. Ideally, you will have a first draft well before the deadline, so you should always be able to get something in on time. If a paper or draft is late, you may email it to me anytime, but I will reduce the grade by one letter per day. You must complete all of the assignments in order to pass. Continuous Assessment: You will write two, one page papers, a three page paper, and a six page final paper. There will also be occasional quizzes which will be worth ten percent of your grade. Assignment descriptions are posted on ffweb. For each paper, I will break down your overall grade into four categories: Concept, Structure, Language, and Documentation. On your final paper, if you receive an FX in any one of these four categories, you will fail the course. There is no final exam. Paper 1 10% A 93-100% Paper 2 10% B 86-92% Paper 3 30% C 78-85% Final 40% D 72-77% Quizzes 10% E 65-71%

COVID-19 regulations:

Changing pandemic situation requires continuous adaptation. Online sessions organized via Microsoft Teams are the preferred alternative to in-person sessions if necessary. Attendance will be duly followed on online meetings too. Tests – if required for the completion of course – are also planned flexibly. Normally, the first credit test takes place during the 6th week of the term with a second credit test on the 12th week, but changes may apply. If necessary, these test dates can be changed according to the pandemic situation or replaced by online tests the form and content of which are comparable with a normal paper-based test session. Students are required to follow the department's noticeboard and inform themselves continuously about the possible changes!

Learning outcomes:

This course focuses on the development of advanced speaking skills. The primary goal of the course is to prepare students for the successful defense of their bachelor's and master's theses. The course is designed to help students practice prepared formal speeches; spontaneously converse in a group and use academic English; learn the principles of intercultural communication; improve academic grammar together with pronunciation in spoken language; and develop vocabulary corresponding to the needs of academic debates. The course is aimed at developing and improving language skills at a higher level and increasing the language skills of students with a special focus on the use of academic language. The course introduces various academic topics, acquaints students with academic vocabulary and provides systematic practice of phrases and collocations. By completing the course, students will be able to actively lead a professional debate in English, give a speech to an academic audience and professionally and factually argue in a scientific and academic context.

Brief outline of the course:

1. Facts or opinions?
2. From the general to the specific
3. Logic of speech
4. The language of research
5. Presentation problems
6. Making speech stronger
7. Why does style matter?
8. 'Victory loves preparation'
9. Finalizing and fine-tuning

University: P. J. Šafárik University in Košice
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: KAaA/ VOCAb/15	Course name: Language Skills - Vocabulary Development
Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 2 Per study period: 28 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 2.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Continuous assessment: Students will be graded on active attendance and involvement, and two credit tests (in week 6 and week 12). Active participation, completed homework assignments - students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Being enrolled in the course means that you intend to positively take and finish the course. Students are expected to make their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should you fail to have your own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular class, your presence will not count. Attendance: Students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule. No transfers among the groups are allowed. In case students miss three or more classes, also online, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what the overall results are. Final assessment: Credit tests - two credit tests (65% pass level) will take place in week 6 and week 12. There will be NO retake test for the students who failed one or more credit tests. The final grade will comprise the sum of gained points of both or more tests and the total sum must make minimum 65%. The credit tests will include vocabulary and exercises similar to those during the seminar sessions and home preparation. Final assessment: The final grade for the course will be based on the following grading scale. A 93-100% B 86-92% C 78-85% D 72-77% E 65-71% FX 64 and less Learning outcomes: Aims and objectives: The main aim of this course is to develop and improve English vocabulary in the classroom with intermediate to upper-intermediate/advanced level students, and to increase their language competences with a special focus on some aspects of vocabulary learning. The course aims to help to learn new words and word combinations, functioning as meaningful units with a fixed or semi-fixed form (collocations, phrasal verbs, idioms), and to show that the words can play different roles in a text, and can express a variety of meanings. Contextually based learning is of great importance, and various sources are suggested.

Brief outline of the course:

The course introduces various interesting aspects of English vocabulary learning. It revises useful points of English vocabulary (word classes/families, multi-word units, homonyms, synonyms and antonyms, etc.), familiarizes students with the ways new words are coined, learned, and presented.

Course type, scope and the method: Course type: Practice Recommended course-load (hours): Per week: 6 Per study period: 84 Course method: present
Number of ECTS credits: 4
Recommended semester/trimester of the course: 2.
Course level: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: COVID -19 UPDATE Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, classes in February will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual parts and classes according to the schedule). However, should the situation allow it, the seminars will be carried out in person, in classrooms according to the schedule. CREDIT TESTS will be written during Tutorials in person on contact classes (in smaller groups and bigger classrooms). In case of worsening pandemic situation changes might apply (test will be written online via MS TEAMS). Specific date and time will be announced via Noticeboard a week ahead (changes may apply according to the pandemic situation). 1. Attendance - students are expected to attend each class according to the schedule, also in the online environment. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Students are allowed to miss two (online) classes at the most. Should they miss three or more (online) classes, they will not receive credits for the course no matter what their overall results are on tests. Students must be on time for (online) class or they will be marked as absent. 2. Active participation, completed homework assignments - students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in (online) seminar sessions. They are expected to bring (have) their own copies of the required materials and complete the assigned tasks and exercises. Should they fail to bring (have) their own copy or a completed home assignment for a particular seminar, they will be marked as absent. Students are required to comply with the standard technical requirements of the department during the period of distance learning (as specified on the department website). 3. CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT – Language skills 2 (LS2) as a subject comprises 3 parts (1 - reading & speaking, 2 - listening , 3 - grammar) . Students will take 2 credit tests, presumably during tutorial weeks. The date of the test may change. All the three parts (reading & speaking, listening and grammar) of the subject will be included in the tests. At the end of the semester, within each part of LS2 separately, your partial scores will be calculated based on the results of partial credit tests. In order to pass one part of LS2, students need to score minimum pass mark as set for their study group.

Final assessment and evaluation:

The student will receive final credits when getting minimum pass mark as set for respective study groups for each of the three parts of LS2. In such case the final credits will be calculated as an average of all percentage results from all LS2 parts. If students fail one part of LS2, they fail the whole subject and cannot receive any credits. There will not be any re-take tests for those who failed to achieve the pass level.

FINAL EVALUATION :

Scale for BASb and BASb (komb), AJEIEb,:

A 93-100%

B 86-92%

C 78-85%

D 72-77%

E 65-71%

FX 64 and less

Should you have any questions on the above explained forms of assessment, address them to your individual lecturer at the beginning of the semester.

Learning outcomes:

Aims and objectives:

To develop and improve essential language skills on advanced level(listening, speaking, reading, writing) and increase students' language competence with a special focus on how to use real language.

The course introduces various interesting topics, revises useful points of English grammar (verbs, nouns, pronouns, articles, linking words, determiners, conditionals, reported speech, etc.) and language functions, familiarises students with word formation, new vocabulary, provides systematic practice of phrasal verbs, prepositional phrases, idioms.

Conditions for course completion: The course will run primarily in person; however, the form of individual classes is till subjected to changes due to possible precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic. Should the pandemic situation change, the course will continue in its online form via MS Teams (lectures and individual classes), according to the schedule outlined in the syllabus available in AIS. Assessment and evaluation: Students need to complete both parts of the assessment to complete the course - continuous and final. Continuous assessment requires students' active participation in each lesson (participation in discussions based on reading required texts and watching required films). Each student will also be asked to prepare short written assignments on a weekly basis to be able to contribute to the discussion about individual films. If a student fails to provide these assignments, he/she will not receive 30% of the final evaluation. To complete the course, students must also successfully pass the essay-question test at the end of the course. The test comprises 70% of the final grade. Students are also expected to attend each class according to the schedule - both contact and online classes. No transfers among the groups are allowed. Learning outcomes:Course content:

The course presents an overview of American cinema, focusing primarily on Hollywood production (both classic and contemporary). Covered topics include Hollywood style, film techniques, studio and star system, and the analysis of their relationship to society.

Aims and objectives:

The main objective of this course is to provide students with a set of information that will help them develop and/or improve essential analytical skills in interpreting contemporary American cinema. The course will enable students to acquire knowledge of significant developments in American cinema, from silent films to the present-day cinema, and explore their connections with broader socio-historical context. It also attempts to increase students' appreciation of diverse styles and genres and help them recognize how some of the popular genres express social and cultural tensions.

One of the main aims of this course, however, is to enable students to question their role as passive spectators and increase their ability to watch films actively and critically.

Conditions for course completion: REGULAR STUDENTS Assessment: 1. Attendance All classes throughout the winter semester of 2021/22 will be held online, through MS Teams, according to the schedule. Seminar attendance is compulsory. The maximum number of absences is 2. In case that a student misses more than 2 seminar sessions, they will be awarded an FX-fail for the course, irrespective of their exam/presentation/paper results. Failing to attend the WEEK 1 introductory session is ALSO COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. Not logging into an online class is COUNTED AS AN ABSENCE. Students must be on time for class. 2. Active participation, completed homework assignments (15 points) Students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Students are expected to bring their own ANNOTATED copies of the required materials, complete the assigned tasks and exercises (available on UPJS OneDrive/MS Teams and during the lessons) and participate in class discussions. Active participation will amount to 15% of the final mark. 3. Reading journal (30 points) Students are required to write three two-sided reading journal entries. The required length of each reading journal is 250-500 words. Each journal should relate to one of the texts discussed during the seminars. The reading journals will amount to 30% of the final mark. Detailed instruction for writing the reading journals will be provided during the introductory session. 4. Credit Test (55 points) Students will sit an online credit test in WEEK 12. The credit test will be held via the Moodle e-learning platform. Detailed instructions on how to log into Moodle will be provided during the introductory seminar. The test will amount to 55% of the final mark. There are NO RETAKES. If you are unable to attend the online credit test for valid reasons (e.g. medical emergency), contact the teacher as soon as possible, or in advance if possible. To pass the course, the SUM of all points (active participation + reading journal + credit test) must be no less than 65 points. Grading scale: Mark % A 93–100

EXTERNAL STUDENTS:

All classes throughout the summer semester of 2021/22 will be held online, through MS Teams, according to the schedule.

Assessment:

1. Active Participation (20 points)

Students are required to do their best with respect to active participation in seminar sessions. Students are expected to bring their own ANNOTATED copies of the required materials, complete the assigned tasks and exercises (available on UPJS OneDrive/MS Teams and during the lessons) and participate in class discussions. Active participation will amount to 20% of the final mark.

2. Reading Journal (40 points)

Throughout the semester, students are required to submit 2 reading journal entries, 400-600 words each. One journal entry needs to relate to one of the texts discussed during the seminars. The second journal entry needs to relate to one of the texts assigned as part of students' home study. The reading journals will amount to 40% of the final mark. Detailed instructions for writing the reading journals will be provided during the introductory session.

3. Seminar Paper (40 points)

Students are required to submit one seminar paper of 1500-2000 words. The deadline for submitting the seminar paper is Sunday, May 15, at midnight. Detailed instructions for writing the seminar paper will be provided during the introductory session. Papers must conform to the guidelines of academic writing and must NOT be plagiarised. Plagiarised papers will be awarded 0 points. Students will not be given the option of rewriting plagiarised seminar papers.

To pass the course, the SUM of all points (active participation + reading journals + seminar paper) must be no less than 65 points.

Learning outcomes:

This course aims at presenting the students with a new point of view on a topic as familiar as children's literature, and consequently attempts to encourage them to adopt a critical attitude towards all, even well-known and seemingly straightforward, areas of life. The course consists in analysing specific fairy tales and other texts falling under the category of "children's literature" in order to uncover the mechanisms which these texts employ to socialise children, reflect and/or influence family dynamics, construct identities, sustain traditional gender roles, or, on the contrary, deconstruct them.

Brief outline of the course:

All seminar sessions throughout the winter semester of 2021/22 will be held online. Attendance in online seminars is compulsory.

Conditions for course completion: Regular Class Attendance Students are allowed to miss no more than 2 seminars for whatever reason. Please reserve these for when you are sick or have other serious reasons to be absent since you only have these 2 options and no more! Once you have missed more than 2 seminars, you will not be allowed to continue the course and take the exam. Should anyone come unprepared, he or she will be asked to leave and considered absent from the seminar. The same applies to failure to participate in class activities and discussion. • Presentation/leading discussion Each student will be given one topic for which they will have to prepare a short summary of the reading and questions for their colleagues to start a discussion. In addition to that, they will choose one of the research topics/questions that can be found at the end of each chapter and present their findings. This will require small research in press, television, etc. depending on each topic. Please do not hesitate to talk to your instructor about your presentation, after the seminar or during her office hours. This is not a topic for email communication. • Active participation in class Points for active participation will be awarded to actively taking part in class discussion and activities. • Panel Discussion During our last session, students will be asked to actively participate in a panel discussion covering all the topics and material assigned during the course of the semester and led by the instructor. Learning outcomes: Considering the fact that most of the courses take a rather anglocentric point of view, it is necessary to introduce other issues and make the students aware of regional diversity of Britain. A single course is not sufficient to cover such a broad topic, therefore, Regions of the UK focus on Scotland as one of the regions. By covering a variety of topics similar to those already known to students primarily from the Introduction to British Studies, this course shall try to elicit a discussion about similarities and differences, encouraging students to contribute their own findings and areas of interest.

Conditions for course completion: Assessment and evaluation COVID -19 UPDATE Due to the precautions resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic, the majority of classes will be carried out online via MS Teams (individual classes). Continuous assessment: Students are required to attend (online) classes regularly. No more than two absences are allowed, also in the online environment. Should a student come to a class without home preparation or late he or she will be marked absent. More than two absences will result in FX. Students will be required to read selected texts before each (online) session and to work with them during the seminars. Classroom performance (attendance, participation, active engagement in debate, etc.) will make up a total of 20% of the final mark. A photo essay to be submitted by the end of week 11 will make up 40% (specific instructions will be provided via email and in class) and a Quiz written in class in week 11 will make up remaining 40% of the final evaluation. In order to be awarded final credits each student must obtain minimum 50% from all the three parts of assessment together. Each student is required to have their own copy of the seminar materials. Students are required to prepare their seminar assignments seriously and in time. Failing to do so will result in considering the student absent for the given seminar session. Please DO NOT come to class unprepared. The following grading scale will be applied: Mark % A 90 – 100 B 80 – 89 C 70 – 79 D 60 – 69 E 50 – 59 FX 49 - 0
Learning outcomes: The aim of this course is to introduce students to the basic concepts of Gender Studies from a sociological perspective. Issues like the sex/gender system, gender stereotyping, the gendered division of labor, the history and application of Women's and Men's Studies as theoretical frameworks, etc. will be dealt with. By the end of the course students should be able to apply the gender perspective to simple situations, cases, and/or problems, as well as to select a specific topic of their interest to analyze within this epistemological paradigm.

Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: 1. Attendance – students are expected to attend each class according to schedule. Should the student miss the classes without relevant reason, he/she will not receive credits for the course no matter what his/her overall results are. The student must be on time for class or he/she will be marked as absent. 2. Assessment: Continuous assessment: Presentation (50%) Each student is to prepare a presentation of one topic. The details about the presentation will be specified during the first, introductory lesson. Each presentation will be followed by discussion. Thus it is necessary for all the students to read the materials assigned for the individual weeks (the reading of the other sources related to the given theme is highly welcome), to think of the topic to be able to contribute to the discussion affectively. Final test (50 %): test based on the linguistic terms mentioned during the course Final assessment is given by the sum of continuous assessment (presentation 50%, written test 50%). There is no retake for any part of the continuous assessment. Note: in case of the transition to online teaching through the MS Teams application, the content of the course as well as its formal structure will remain unchanged. I would like to inform students that in accordance with the valid General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Act no. 185/2015 Coll. Copyright law (intellectual property law), it is not possible to create video or audio recordings of any part of the teaching carried out online or in the classroom. This would violate the law with all the legal consequences.
Learning outcomes: This course aims to account for the most popular misconceptions about the language in particular and language in general, that is, about its acquisition, its pronunciation, about its usage in the process of communication.
Brief outline of the course: The content of the course will be based on the books (1) Language Myth edited by L. Bauer and P. Trudgill, (2) Pronunciation Myths edited by Linda J. Learning outcomes: This course explores popular cultural “makings” of masculinity, femininity, and sexuality through typical representation of gender within popular culture. Investigating diverse cultural forms such as TV series, film, and music videos, this course will look into the ways in which gendered and sexual identities are shaped by, and in turn shape, popular understandings of gender. In particular, we will analyze how such critical factors as ethnicity, race, gender, class, age, region, and sexuality are constructed in popular culture. As case studies, we will examine TV series, movies and music videos. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To understand the interrelation of gender and popular culture, including historical frameworks and methodology of relevant disciplines in relation to the study of gender and culture. • To understand the interlocking systems of power which produce differences among men, women and between women and men in various cultural settings. • To become familiar with theoretical texts, debates, language and theoretical issues in the study of gender and culture.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To demonstrate critical and independent thought.
