Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: Conditions of credit: During the semester, students will write one written review, which will be valued with 10 points. The minimum number of points from the exam is 6 points. Students have to work out a semester work during the semester, which will be continuously presented. The thesis presents a selected social problem in a particular selected locality (town, municipality) and applies the potential of a social enterprise to it. They have a maximum of 30 points for their work. Minimum 15 points. The student can get a total of 40 points for the credit. To pass the exam, the student needs to achieve at least 21 points in the credit. If the student does not achieve the minimum number of credit points (21 points), it is possible to write corrective written examination in the 13th week of the semester. Exam: student can get max. 60 points, min. 31 points. The points from the credit are added to them. In total, the student can obtain 100 points from the course. Tolerated absence: 100% attendance at seminars is required. "Education will be carried out by distance or full-time method in accordance with the valid orders of the Rector to implement teaching and work activities at UPJŠ in Košice, which determine the organization and conditions of the pedagogical process and operation at UPJŠ in Košice for the academic year 2021/2022 and dean's guidelines on the organization and conditions of the pedagogical process at the Faculty of Public Administration UPJŠ in Košice in the academic year 2021/2022. "
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to understand the principles of social economy and social entrepreneurship, to understand the importance of social entrepreneurship with respect to the social needs of society at home and abroad. It is a new modern and highly up-to-date subject that can create space for finding solutions to problems of unemployment or disadvantaged citizens in society and at the same time to prepare students for the establishment of new social enterprises in regions that need this kind of business. By excursion in social enterprises / external lectures, the student gets a real idea of what a social enterprise looks like, how it is managed and what role it performs in local communities. Through the elaboration of a semester work the student: independently solves problem tasks in predictable changing conditions, recognizes the emergence of a problem in a selected location (municipality, city), monitors, analyzes and evaluates a specific procedure for establishing a social enterprise, proposes specific work procedures, which assumes innovative and creative thinking. The student will learn to think critically, independently and analytically in unpredictable changing conditions. It takes into account the social, scientific and ethical aspects in the direction of the development of society, how the social enterprise will positively affect the site. He will have the ability to present the results and formulate recommendations for the development of the area.
