Prerequisites:
Conditions for course completion: 100% graded credit: 40% (evaluated participation in seminars, processing of partial seminar work - separate assignment) 60% (final seminar work - student project). In the case of implementation of the classical form of teaching - face-to-face - active participation of the student in the seminar; study and reflection of assigned philosophical texts, attempt to interpret them. In the case of the introduction of distance education (as was the case due to Covid-19), the student will have to actively fulfill tasks of a partial nature, where increased demands will be placed on the student and his independent work with philosophical texts and literature. Tasks will be assigned to the students by the teacher on an ongoing basis. The student must study the assigned philosophical texts, think through and process them, submit them as a seminar paper, i.e. in written form. In both cases, the study of literature is necessary to pass the subject. The conclusion of the subject is the preparation of a seminar paper - the final seminar paper - in the range of at least 10 - 12 pages of A4 (with compliance with the bibliographic standard of the Department of Philosophy (KF) for seminar and qualification papers).
Learning outcomes: To supplement and expand the interest of natural science students in social science issues related to the issues of the development of philosophy, science and human leadership, which are manifested in the urgent problems of today's world and society. Special emphasis is placed on the formation of humanistic ideas, their origin, transformation and possible pitfalls and risks. In addition to thinking about serious questions of the past and present, it also includes thinking about the present and the current contexts of major topics in philosophy and Western culture in particular. Therefore, the preparation and implementation of a program aimed at cooperation with alternative directions of pedagogy in the conditions of our transforming education system is understood as a practical output.
